FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORT

November 10, 1958

[redacted] of the Link Sales Company, 511 Third Street, S.E., advised that he has known Jack SHUBOW of Link-Sor Sales, Detroit, Michigan, for approximately [redacted] and considers him a reputable individual.

b6
b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated that during the first part of October he made a telephone call to a hotel in New York City at which place they were having a merchandise show in order to make inquiry regarding some merchandise he would possibly be interested in purchasing. Mr. [redacted] stated that on that occasion Mr. SHUBOW happened to be at the merchandise display and he had a telephone conversation with him.

Mr. [redacted] stated that on that occasion Mr. SHUBOW told him that he was acting as a broker for a large syndicate and would be able to sell him various articles of merchandise for thirty per cent less than it could be purchased from the manufacturer. Mr. [redacted] stated that Mr. SHUBOW told him on that occasion that he would not be restricted to the amount of merchandise he could buy and that further he, SHUBOW, was getting a commission of five per cent in his capacity as a broker in selling the merchandise.

Mr. [redacted] went on to state that on October 9, 1958, he took a plane to Detroit, Michigan, and met Mr. SHUBOW who took him to a warehouse. It was stated by Mr. [redacted] that he selected approximately $4,800 worth of the merchandise which was stored in the warehouse and gave a check to Mr. SHUBOW in the amount of $5,000 payable to cash. Mr. [redacted] stated that the check had been returned to him by his bank, having been cashed. Mr. [redacted] stated that the check was endorsed on the reverse side by Mr. SHUBOW.

b7C

It was stated further by Mr. [redacted] that at the time he purchased the merchandise from Mr. SHUBOW, the latter told him that it was possible that there might be some additional freight charges in connection with the shipping of the merchandise in the event the merchandise had to be shipped by an independent carrier. It was stated further by Mr. [redacted] in view of this fact he gave Mr. SHUBOW a signed check with the amount left blank in order that SHUBOW could fill in the amount on the check if it was necessary to do so in order to pay additional freight charges.

It was further related by Mr. [] that this second check, if negotiated by SHUBOW, had not as yet been returned to his bank. It was added by Mr. [] that he negotiated with no one else except Mr. SHUBOW in the purchase of the above-mentioned merchandise. According, further, to Mr. [] the merchandise he had purchased from Mr. SHUBOW was delivered to [] in Washington, D. C., on October 17, 1958, by the H & H Trailer Company, number 4780 of Detroit, Michigan.

b6

Mr. [] went on to state that he had received what is known as a "packing slip" which listed the various articles of merchandise he had purchased. Mr. [] added that according to this packing slip the above shipment was supposed to have consisted of 458 cartons of merchandise, but that, however, only 424 cartons of merchandise was delivered to him by the H & H Trailer Company. It was stated further by Mr. [] that he has not as yet received an invoice for the merchandise that he had purchased. It was stated by Mr. [] that in his opinion, he has sold less than two per cent of the merchandise since receiving it. He stated that he would have to check through his records to determine exactly what merchandise has been sold by him and to whom.

Mr. [] went on to state that apparently the only identification on the cartons comprising the shipment received by him was a manufacturers label indicating to whom the merchandise was originally shipped from the manufacturer. Mr. [] stated that his employees had removed the manufacturers shipping label from all of the cartons received in the above-mentioned shipment. Mr. [] stated that this is a usual procedure followed by him upon the receipt of any type merchandise he has purchased. He explained further that the reason this is done is due to the fact that he does not care to have his customers know who the manufacturer of the particular product was in order to preclude his customers from buying directly from the manufacturer in the future.

Mr. [] went on to state that approximately one-fourth of the shipment received which he had purchased from Mr. SHUBOW had been removed from the cartons and placed on shelves in his warehouse. Mr. [] stated, however, that he can identify the complete shipment still in his possession as having been bought from Mr. SHUBOW. He added that he can identify various articles contained in the particular shipment due to the fact that he has not in the past ever purchased these type articles before.

It was stated further by Mr. [] that there were four empty cartons in his warehouse which had contained merchandise comprising the above-mentioned shipment from SHUBOW. He stated that these particular cartons had contained clothes hampers. Mr. [] added that these particular empty cartons bore a manufacturers shipping label of the Mastur Manufacturing Company, 2415 North Howard Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He added that the name of the person or firm to whom this particular type merchandise was shipped has been crossed over in what appears to be heavy black crayon. He added, however, that on one of the empty cartons the name Scaulon Radio and Music Company could be made out under the black crayon.

Mr. [] stated that he desired to cooperate in this matter to the fullest extent, and that he would not dispose of any of the merchandise now in his possession and will maintain it separately in his warehouse until advised as to what disposition will be made of the merchandise.

Mr. [] displayed the $5,000 canceled check he had given to Mr. SHUBOW in connection with the purchase of the above-mentioned merchandise. This check, number 5994, is dated October 9, 1958, payable to the order of cash, signed by [] and drawn on the National Bank of Washington, Washington, D. C. The check is endorsed on the reverse side by JACK SHUBOW.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] stated that in connection with the $5,000 paid to Mr. SHUBOW, $4,800 of this amount was the purchase price of the merchandise and $200 the amount of the freight charges in shipping the merchandise to Washington, D. C. Mr. [] added that when he totaled the price of the above merchandise upon receiving it, the total price should have only been $4,696.44.

Mr. [] made available the above-mentioned packing slip received in connection with the merchandise purchased from Mr. SHUBOW. This packing slip lists the following items as having been delivered to []

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate November 12, 1958

[redacted] Link Sales Company, advised that according to the packing slip received in connection with instant shipment there should have been 458 cartons of merchandise in the shipment. Mr. [redacted] stated that he recalls that there were only 424 cartons received from the shipper.

b6

Mr. [redacted] stated that in connection with the above-mentioned packing slip, the amount of cartons listed in the first column should be disregarded as these amounts are erroneous. Mr. [redacted] stated, however, that the quantity of merchandise listed on the packing slip was correct except for the fact that there was a shortage of two model 41 B gun-holster sets and six men's wallets.

Mr. [redacted] added that it was possible that he may have sold one of two articles of the above merchandise to persons who came in his office. Mr. [redacted] stated that he could not recall any such sales specifically, and that there would be no record of these sales as such.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate November 13, 1958

[redacted] for the Link Sales Company, advised that he had received instant shipment of merchandise at the warehouse from the J & H Trailer Company. Mr. [redacted] stated that when he checked the shipment, he observed that there were some cartons of merchandise listed on the packing slip that were missing, but that he did not recall how many cartons were missing from the shipment.

b6

Mr. [redacted] stated that as is customary, he had cut the manufacturer's shipping label off of nearly all of the cartons received in the shipment. He stated further that he had emptied approximately one-fourth of the cartons received in the shipment and placed the merchandise on shelves in the warehouse.

It was stated further by Mr. [redacted] that he could not recall what information had appeared on any of the manufacturer's shipping labels he had cut from the cartons of merchandise.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate November 14, 1958

[] advised that a check of the records of the Link Sales Company reflected that on October 23, 1958, the following items, which were part of the merchandise purchased from JACK SHUBOW, had been sold to the Fairfax Businessmen's Association, 250 Lee Highway, Fairfax, Virginia:

Six toy alligators, total price $3.60; three toy wiggle worms, total price $3.75; six toy jeeps, total price $7.50; twelve toy frogs, total price $7.20; one dozen golf balls, total price $4.50; three hinge games, total price $7.20; one hub line toy, price $19.98; six woodburner sets, total price $12.00, and one fishing kit, price $9.00.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] stated that he had contacted a representative of the above-mentioned Businessmen's Association and had been advised that the above items of merchandise had been disposed of by the organization on November 1, 1958, to individual purchasers. Mr. [] stated that he had been advised that some of the members of the above-mentioned Businessmen's Association instead of using merchandise stamps, gave to customers what are known as "lucky bucks" and that about every week or so there is an auction held by the members of the above Businessmen's Association at which time the customers bid on certain items of merchandise using the "lucky bucks" as payment. Mr. [] stated that the above-mentioned items that he had sold to the Fairfax Businessmen's Association had been disposed of by the Association in the above-described manner.

December 5, 1958

[redacted] advised that on the advice of his attorney, he was going to commence selling the merchandise in his possession which he had purchased from JACK SHUBOW. Mr. [redacted] stated that he had purchased this merchandise for Christmas sales and being a small operator, he had to begin to sell the merchandise or he might become bankrupt as a result. Mr. [redacted] stated his attorney had advised him to sell the merchandise for cash, giving credit to no one. Mr. [redacted] added that he would be willing to put up a bond in the amount of the merchandise if possible. It was stated further by Mr. [redacted] that he is willing to cooperate in every way but due to his financial condition, he would be forced to sell the merchandise involved beginning November 12, 1958.

Re Milwaukee letter to Boston 1-12-59.

At approximately 6:15 PM on 2-26-59, Mr. [redacted] Evans International Inc., Acton, Mass., advised that one SCANLON'S RADIO and MUSIC SHOP is located at 707 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that this organization was presumably bought by one [redacted] (believed to be an alias) within the past four months. [redacted] related that [redacted] caused to be shipped from various manufacturers or distributors throughout the U.S. goods amounting to approximately $500,000 to SCANLON'S RADIO and MUSIC SHOP which goods in turn were then stored in unmarked warehouses and thence sold to various companies throughout the U.S. [redacted] stated that [redacted] (aka) of course never paid for goods shipped him and eventually went into bankruptcy. [redacted] believes [redacted] to be presently incarcerated after having been located in Calif.

[redacted] "Royal Druware" in the U.S. "Royal Druware" is imported from Holland. [redacted] stated that during Sept. 1958 he shipped from Acton to SCANLON'S $1800 worth of "Druware" for which he was not paid since SCANLON'S went into bankruptcy. He has not been able since Sept. 1958 to find out what disposition was made of his shipment. He said his shipment to SCANLON'S consisted of sauce-pans, oval bakers and oval shallow dishes made of procelain cast-iron which were blue, green or yellow in color. He said that they were decorated with a tulip and windmill, further bore the notation "made in Holland." He stated that during the past 24 hours his representative in N.Y.C., Mr. [redacted] with offices at Evans International Inc., 1133 Broadway, N.Y.C. had learned that the C and C Sales Co., exact address unknown, but located in Metropolitan N.Y. had for sale his product "Druware", and when [redacted]

Re report of SA 1/13/59 at CV and MI airtel to CV 2/9/59.

Enclosed for the Milwaukee, Chicago, and Detroit Divisions is one photograph of RUSHUS WILLIAMS for assistance in investigations being conducted by these Divisions.

RUSHUS WILLIAMS, aka., Bob Williams, was located and interviewed by SA on 2/20/59. WILLIAMS advised at this time that he hauled approximately 10 trailer loads of merchandise from warehouse of Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, West Allis, Wisconsin, to E & A Sales Co., 7010 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, during the month of Sept., 1958. WILLIAMS stated a man by the name of IRVING (LNU) paid him the freight charges for each load he hauled to Cleveland. He was unable to furnish the names of the individuals who unloaded the merchandise at the E & A Sales Co.

On 2/21/59 WILLIAMS appeared at the Cleveland Office and furnished the following additional information:

WILLIAMS stated he obtained a job to haul merchandise from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, West Allis, Wisconsin, to the E & A Sales Co., 7010 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, during the early part of September, 1958. He stated he hauled merchandise to Cleveland from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop continuously for approximately one month. He stated on return from Cleveland to Chicago he normally obtained a load from the Harwood Trucking Co., Cleveland, for Chicago, and then deadheaded to West Allis, Wisconsin, from Chicago. WILLIAMS stated he has no records of any of the shipments made to Cleveland. He stated he did observe employees of E & A Sales Co., unloading skis and floor mats from his trailer on one occasion as these items are not in cartons. He was unable to furnish any further information pertaining to the identity of the merchandise in the above shipments. He indicated an individual called [] checked the merchandise from the trailer on arrival at E & A Sales Co. WILLIAMS indicated he could definitely identify [] and one other unknown colored male who helped unload the merchandise from each shipment if he should see them in the future.

b7C

An order was placed by the agent of the company, [redacted] Manufacturer's Representative, 5234 North Damen Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. [redacted] is connected with Neebler & Schwartz, of the same address. This order was for 100 lawn sweepers, manufactured by the National Engineering Company.
He said that Mr. [redacted] telephoned in about the order and then confirmed it by letter.

Mr. [redacted] said that the order was to be billed to Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin, Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin. The order was dated September 3, 1958. The sweepers sell at $14.50 each.

Mr. [redacted] stated that an account was opened for Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop based only on their Dunn and Bradstreet credit report as furnished by Mr. [redacted] Shipments were subsequently made starting on September 17, 1958, and continuing until October 3, 1958. The total of 100 were shipped and the amount of indebtedness amounted to $1,450.00. He said none of this had been collected.

b6
b7C

Mr. [redacted] explained that the original invoices, covering the 100 lawn sweepers were forwarded by him to the National Acceptance Company, 33 South Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois, together with the original of the order covering these items.
He said that this company pays 80 per cent of the amount upon receipt of the invoices and pay the additional 20 per cent, less interest, when payment

ALBANY

At Syracuse, New York

Will refer to the report of SA(A) GEORGE P. SIMPSON dated 12/5/58 at Albany and Detroit airtel dated 2/6/59. Will re-interview HARRY MARKIN, Better Home Products, and conduct other appropriate investigation in an effort to resolve whether MARKIN received three truck loads of merchandise as indicated in reairtel, whereas MARKIN furnished a signed statement stating he received only one trailer load of merchandise.

CINCINNATI

At Columbus, Ohio

Will attempt to locate and interview [redacted] [redacted] Columbus, to determine if he may be identical with [redacted] of E & A Sales Company, Cleveland, who allegedly made a deal with [redacted] in Milwaukee. This lead set out by Detroit airtel dated 1/21/59.

CLEVELAND

1. Will determine subscribers to the Cleveland telephone numbers charged to the Sid Fein Company as set out on page of this report and will interview individuals considered pertinent to this investigation.

2. Will attempt to locate merchandise at 7813 Euclid Street and at Feature Products Company on Carnegie Street, will interview [redacted] and other appropriate employees of E & A Sales Company. These leads set out by Detroit airtels dated 12/29/58 and 1/7/59.

CHICAGO

At Chicago, Illinois

1. Will re-interview EUGENE GILLIS, Sales Manager, Empire Amerex Corporation, regarding his trip to Cleveland on 9/17/58, and information furnished by JACK SHUBOW in this report. This lead set out by Detroit airtel dated 1/8/59.

DE 49-1185

2. Will examine records of the Morrison Hotel for telephone numbers called by JACK SHUBOW while he was at this hotel on 8/5, 6 and 27/58. This lead set out by Detroit airtel dated 1/26/59.

At Glencoe, Illinois

Will ascertain subscriber to telephone number YE 5-3744, such number having been called by JACK SHUBOW from Kalamazoo, Michigan on 10/23/58, when he was allegedly told by JESS BERON that the merchandise was being stolen from them in Detroit. The lead pages in report of SA [redacted] dated 11/25/58 at Chicago, reflects that telephone number VE 5-3744 was called from Scanlon's Warehouse, Milwaukee, on several dates during September, 1958, and it appears likely that one of these listings is an error. It also appears likely that this number is listed to GENE GILLIS.

Synopsis:

[redacted] and [redacted] attorney refused to permit them to be interviewed. JACK SHUBOW furnished signed statement admitting a purchase from [redacted] and [redacted] in May, 1958. [redacted] offered him Scanlon deal about 9/1/58 and SHUBOW enlisted help of EUGENE GILLIS, his brother-in-law, Chicago, to dispose of merchandise. GILLIS arranged sale of Scanlon merchandise to E & A Sales Co., Cleveland. SHUBOW received 4 checks of $1,500 each from E & A through GILLIS, but payment stopped on 2 of these checks. SHUBOW later assisted [redacted] in obtaining storage space for Scanlon merchandise in Detroit. JESS BERON furnished signed statement stating he purchased $4,200 worth of Scanlon merchandise on 10/9/58 at 50% of cost. On 10/17/58, [redacted] and SHUBOW offered him a large quantity of goods at 35% of cost. BERON stated on 10/21/58, he was contacted by TONY THOMAS, who agreed to buy the large quantity of merchandise from him. BERON states that THOMAS, SAM FINAZZO, and their associates then proceeded to steal the Scanlon merchandise. [redacted] of American Supply Co., advised that [redacted] offered him $100,000 worth of distress merchandise located in Cleveland, which had come from Milwaukee. [redacted] advised that IRVING LICHTERMAN and EDDIE WIGODSKI, owners of E & A Sales Co., Cleveland, [redacted]

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate February 16, 1959

SID FEIN, 21860 Parklawn, Oak Park, Michigan, advised on January 2, 1959, that he [redacted] the Sid Fein Company for many years. This company is a partnership, operating as factory representatives in Michigan and Ohio. They sell general merchandise to wholesalers on a commission basis and represent about fifty factories. FEIN said that this company was being dissolved and he and [redacted] along with [redacted] were forming a retail company to be known as Giant Value Distributors and they will sell general merchandise in a discount type operation.

b6
b7c

FEIN said that he has known EDDIE WIGODSKI and IRVING LITE, aka. Irving Lichterman, of E and A Sales, 7010 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, for three or four years and they are good customers. He said that during this period he has contacted them at their store on an average of three or four times a month.

FEIN said that sometime during October, 1958, WIGODSKI and LICHTERMAN told him they had too much merchandise on hand and they needed cash. They asked him to find buyers for this merchandise and told him he could sell the merchandise at fifteen per cent below cost for a seven per cent commission or up to twenty-five per cent below cost for a five per cent commission. FEIN said that it was not too unusual that he should be asked to dispose of merchandise in this manner, but that this was the first time E and A Sales Company has asked him to sell merchandise. FEIN refused to estimate how often he was offered merchandise for sale in this manner.

FEIN said that EDDIE WIGODSKI had showed him this merchandise which was located in the back storage room of E and A Sales. He said that this area contained about 8,000 square feet of floor space and that the merchandise was stacked in cartons, in six feet to eight feet stacks with aisles between the rows. FEIN said that this was assorted merchandise, very mixed and consisted of toys, small electrical appliances, fans, clocks, kitchenware, leather goods and other items. FEIN stated that he had no idea how much of this merchandise had originally come from Scanlon's in Milwaukee.

Interview with SID FEIN File # DE 49-1185

FEIN was requested to give an estimate of the amount and value of this merchandise, but he flatly declined to do so and said that he did not know if there was one truck load or a hundred or if the merchandise was valued at $1,000.00 or $100,000.00.

FEIN also advised that he had contacted five or six customers in Detroit and two of his customers had expressed an interest in buying some of this merchandise. He said that within two or three days of this offer he had taken a customer in his car to E and A Sales to look at the merchandise and that a day or so later he had taken a second customer to look at this merchandise. FEIN said that the two customers had looked at the merchandise but had delayed placing orders until a complete inventory had been prepared by E and A. He said that E and A had prepared a partial inventory and he had seen this partial list on one occasion. He said that this list listed the merchandise by stock number and prices only and that it was very difficult to identify the merchandise with the list.

FEIN stated that a few days later [redacted] had visited E and A Sales and upon his return to Detroit had advised FEIN that he had seen JACK SHUBOW and [redacted] at E and A and that they should not have anything to do with this deal as he was afraid of it.

FEIN also stated that at about that time he had seen an article in the Home Furnishing Daily newspaper relating to the bankruptcy of Scanlon Radio and Music Shop in Milwaukee and that merchandise from Scanlon was missing. He said that at a later date WIGODSKI had told he and [redacted] that he had bought some of the Scanlon merchandise, but he did not say how much he had purchased.

b6
b7C

FEIN further advised that he would try to locate his expense vouchers in an attempt to fix the exact date he was offered this merchandise by LICHTERMAN and WIGODSKI.

FEIN declined to identify the customers he had contacted and the two customers he had taken to Cleveland to view this merchandise, saying that he did not want to jeopardize his good reputation and the customers had not purchased any merchandise. He also declined to furnish a signed statement, however, he said that he would consider giving a signed statement and called the Detroit Office on the following Monday.

JDF:DHD - 3

On January 5, 1959, FEIN telephonically advised that he was willing to sign a statement and a statement was prepared. FEIN was contacted at his office and advised that he had located a expense voucher for his stay at the Colonial House Motel, 3301 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, for the period September 16 through 19, 1958, and a bill from the Greenbriar Restaurant dated September 18, 1958, and he knew from these bills that LICHTERMAN and WIGODSKI had offered him the deal on September 18, 1958.

FEIN read the statement set forth hereinafter, acknowledged it to be a true statement, but he refused to sign the statement:

On February 11, 1959, [] stated that he and FEIN would only reveal the names of the buyers they had taken to E and A Sales if they were subpoenaed before a Federal Grand Jury.

[] S and M Appliance Company, 52 Victor Street, Highland Park, Michigan, advised SA KEEHAN and SA FUSELIER on February 5, 1959, that they had not been offered any good deals in the past year in merchandise which could be purchased at substantially below wholesale cost. They said they had not conducted any business with SID FEIN and [] within the past six months. They also stated that they had not been to Cleveland within the last five years and they had never heard of Scanlon in Milwaukee. They pointed out that 99 per cent of their stock was name brand merchandise.

On Monday, December 22, 1958, [redacted] Attorney for JACK SHUBOW in this case, telephonically advised SA(A) KEEHAN that JACK SHUBOW had received a telephone call about November 21, 1958, and definitely between the time that [redacted] was apprehended and before Subjects [redacted] and [redacted] surrendered themselves at Detroit, from [redacted] Credit Manager, Helbrose Watch Company, New York City, New York.

b6
b7C

[redacted] said that SHUBOW told him that "he was asked by [redacted] what he was involved in regarding Scanlon's of Milwaukee as [redacted] had heard that an individual named GINO or DINO MARTIN had been murdered in Chicago as a result of this case.

[redacted] then asked whether or not a signed statement was to be taken from his client, JACK SHUBOW, who was interviewed in the Detroit Office on October 29, 30, 31, 1958. [redacted] stated that it was his understanding that a statement would be prepared and that he desired to have a statement of the information furnished by his client.

b7C

In the afternoon of December 22, 1958, SA(A) JOHN D. FUSELIER and SA(A) ROBERT P. KEEHAN met with [redacted] in his office. It was explained to [redacted] that his client had furnished conflicting information regarding events which took place, and it was pointed out to [redacted] that his client had admitted knowing the date of "final settlement" with Subjects [redacted] and [redacted] but that after contacting [redacted] SHUBOW stated only that the date of the "final settlement" was either October 17, 1958, or October 23, 1958.

On January 6, 1959, JACOB L. SHUBOW appeared at the Detroit Office and was interviewed by SA(A)s ROBERT P. KEEHAN and FUSELIER. SHUBOW furnished information relating to his business contacts with [REDACTED] during May and June, 1958, which information he had withheld in previous interviews. SHUBOW also furnished additional details regarding his knowledge of [REDACTED] efforts to dispose of the merchandise from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

At the conclusion of the interview, SHUBOW called his attorney [REDACTED] and advised that due to an out-of-town trip, he would not be available to sign his statement until January 16, 1959.

On January 16, 1959, SHUBOW signed the following statement at Detroit, Michigan:

"January 16, 1959

"I, Jacob Louis Shubow, hereby make the following free and voluntary statement to Robert P. Keehan and John D. Fuselier, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have been made to me to induce me to make this statement. I realize that I do not have to make any statement and that any statement I do make may be used against me in a court of law. I have consulted an attorney.

"I was born on February 12, 1912, at Reading, Pennsylvania. My present residence is 22551 Bellwood Drive North, Southfield, Michigan.

"I am president and only stockholder of Rich-Mor Sales Distributing Company, Inc., 13144 Linwood Avenue. This company is a wholesale distributor of small appliances, tools, general housewares and soft goods such as blankets. About 80% of Rich-Mor's

"customers are wagon jobbers, 10% are auctioneers and 10% are retail outlets. Most of these customers are in the State of Michigan outside the Detroit area. A wagon jobber of this type of merchandise is referred to in the trade as a peddler or a hustler. A peddler generally sells from house to house whereas a hustler generally sells to business establishments.

"In the normal course of my business, I am often offered merchandise for sale at below wholesale cost. This is known as 'distress merchandise' and is a situation where a business is willing to sell a part of its inventory at up to 50% below cost to pay pressing bills. Occasionally a business will offer 'close out' merchandise, which is a slow selling item, at 10% to 50% below cost to get rid of such items.

"About four years ago [redacted] and [redacted] started in business as wagon jobbers selling cookware which I supplied them. I sold merchandise to [redacted] for about a year and [redacted] traveled with [redacted] selling this merchandise. [redacted] then went into business as [redacted] in Detroit. I continued to sell [redacted] merchandise until he closed his store, after a settlement with his creditors, in early [redacted]

b6
b7C

"I have identified a photograph of [redacted] as being the person I know as [redacted]

"Sometime in May, 1958, [redacted] called me from Chicago, Illinois, and asked me if I was interested in buying 'close out' merchandise. He offered me general houseware merchandise at 65% of invoice cost, which would cost me $10,000 to $12,000. On May 23, 1958, Jess Beron, a close friend and business associate, owner of Beron Distributing Company, Windsor, Canada, and I flew to Chicago, where we met [redacted] to discuss the terms of this deal. Beron and I later agreed to buy this merchandise at 50% and sell it through Beron Distributing Company in "Canada. [] told me that he was buying 'close outs' throughout the country and had this merchandise for sale. I asked [] if this merchandise was stolen and he said it was not stolen. I relied upon [] statement that this merchandise was not stolen.

"After returning to Detroit, I borrowed $25,000 from [] to pay for the merchandise. I gave $15,000 of this loan to Beron to pay the import duty to Canadian customs and deposited the remaining $10,000 in my bank account so I could use the money. My records show I deposited this $10,000 on June 6, 1958. I did not record this as a loan on the books of Rich-Mor Sales Company. I later drew 3 checks totalling $10,000 and paid the proceeds to []

"During June, 1958, [] brought or had shipped five or six trailer loads of this merchandise, to my store lot for immediate transfer to Lancaster trucking. Most of the labels on the boxes of merchandise had been cut out, but I do remember that some labels were addressed from the factories or suppliers to the Approved Appliance Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. I do not know who owned this company and I made no inquiry regarding this company. All of my dealings in this matter were with [] They did not tell me where they got the merchandise.

"When these five or six truckloads of merchandise arrived at my store, the merchandise was transferred to a truck from Lancaster Warehouse Company, Windsor, Canada. [] sent invoices with each truckload and at the time of the transfer my bookkeeper, Ludwig Rohe, inventoried the merchandise by listing the items on 'MA forms' which are used by the Canadian Customs men to figure out the amount of duty on the merchandise. These 'MA forms' reflected that this merchandise was sold by the Bell Novelty Company, East Jefferson Street, Detroit, to Beron Distributing Company, Windsor. [] [] told me that he was connected with [] who is connected with Bell Novelty Company.

b7C

"I paid [] for this merchandise by giving him the proceeds of checks represented by a check for $4,427.50 on June 6, 1958; a check for $4,100 on June 18, 1958; and a check for $1,472.50 dated June 27, 1958.

DE 49-1185
JDE:hs - 4

"These three checks, totaling $10,000, were payable to Cash and were drawn on the Rich-Mor Sales Company bank account. I also gave [redacted] about $5,000 in cash from sales proceeds which is not reflected on my records. The above mentioned check dated June 27, 1958, was cashed by me on August 15, 1958, and it was probably held by me until that date because of insufficient funds, then cashed and the cash was previously given to [redacted]

b6
b7C

"Jess Beron and I were to split the profits from the sale of this merchandise. Beron repaid me about $30,000.00, all in cash or bank money orders to repay our loan. We lost about $1,800.00 on this deal because the import duty of approximately $11,000 was much more than we had expected to pay.

"I did not mention this purchase from [redacted] when I made a statement to Agents of the FBI on October 29, 1958, because I was not specifically asked and I thought this would have looked incriminating.

"About September 1, 1958, [redacted] called me from Milwaukee and offered me a large amount of distress merchandise at a good price. I asked him how much it would be and he said a great deal in cash. I told him I could not buy on a cash basis and [redacted] then asked me if I could find buyers for the merchandise at a 5% commission. I told [redacted] if it was good merchandise I could sell it. At this time I asked [redacted] if it was 'hot stuff', meaning was it stolen goods, and he said no, it was not. I often ask this question.

b7C

"A couple of days later [redacted] came into my office to discuss the deal. He showed me a Dun & Bradstreet credit report for Scanlon's in Milwaukee. The report showed a good credit rating of 'E-2' and indicated that Scanlon's had been in business for 25 years. [redacted] told me that he was an agent for a Mr. [redacted] who had bought Scanlon's and wanted to sell this merchandise as he needed cash. I do not think [redacted] name was on the credit report which [redacted] showed me, and I think the report I saw was dated in 1957.

"I called my brother-in-law, Gene Gillis, Sales Manager for Empire Amerex Corporation, Chicago, Illinois, and told him about the deal. He agreed to try to find buyers

"for [] merchandise as he has many contacts in this line of merchandise and we agreed to split the 5% commission on the sale of this merchandise. Gillis contacted E & A Sales Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and arranged for the sale of merchandise.

b6
b7C

"About two weeks later, Gene Gillis called me and said that [] had asked him to go to Cleveland to talk to Irving Lichterman and Eddie Wigodski of E & A Sales. I understood that Lichterman and [] did not trust each other and there had been some argument as to the price of the merchandise and who was to pay the freight. [] wanted to sell at 60% of invoice cost and Lichterman wanted to pay 40%. Gene Gillis said he wanted to make sure everything was clearly understood in the deal. I agreed to meet him in Cleveland as I also wanted to try to collect $750.00 which Irving Lichterman had owed me for over four years.

"On September 17, 1958, I drove to Cleveland and met Gillis, who flew there from Chicago. We met with Lichterman and Eddie Wigodski at the E & A store on Euclid Street. We had had an argument about 10 days prior about the percentage of cost to be paid for the merchandise. We had finally agreed that E & A would pay 50% of invoice cost. Irving said that if they made money on the deal they would take care of Gillis and me, meaning that they would pay us something out of the profits, although he did not state a definite amount. Gillis and I expected to get between $3,000.00 and $4,000.00 from E & A on this deal and also our 5% commission from []. Neither [] were at this meeting in Cleveland on September 17, 1958, and I did not see them in Cleveland on this date.

b7C

"A few days later Gene Gillis sent me four post dated checks in the amount of $1,500.00 each, drawn by E & A Sales Company. Gillis told me that I was to deposit $3,000.00 in checks each week and pay [] out of the proceeds, after taking our 5% commission. The first two E & A checks of $1,500.00 each cleared the bank and towards the middle of October I deposited two more E & A checks of $1,500.00 each. Payment on the last two checks was stopped. Lichterman called and said payment on these two checks was stopped because he did not get the merchandise. I did not receive any other E & A checks from Gene.

Gillis or E & A Sales Company in this deal.

"Sometime around September 17, 1958, [] told me that he had sent merchandise to E & A but he did not say how much.

b6
b7C

"All of a sudden, on or about September 18, 1958, [] told me that he would start sending merchandise to Detroit from Scanlon's for me to sell. He also told me that the Cleveland deal was all finished, that things did not work out right in Cleveland and he was sorry that he got into that deal.

"On September 18 or 19, 1958, [] walked into my office and said he was working with [] and they wanted to start shipping merchandise to Detroit in the next few days.

"[] asked me if I knew of any available warehouse space for this merchandise. I called [] Shubow and Holly Real Estate, James Couzens Highway, Detroit. [] said he would see what he had available and to send the fellow over. The following week end [] told me he had rented space in a double store on Grand River Avenue near Schoolcraft in Detroit, to the fellow I had sent over, [] I knew that [] also used the name of []

b6
b7C

"A few days later, about the end of September, [] came to my office and said the merchandise had been shipped to [] store on Grand River. [] and I went to the store and looked over the merchandise. I told [] I could sell this merchandise and I asked him how much I should sell it for. [] said I should get at least fifty to seventy per cent of the wholesale cost price. We agreed that I would get a five per cent commission based on the selling price for any merchandise I sold, or for any buyer I referred to [] If I could sell for a higher price they would pay me a higher commission.

"It was also agreed that the smallest sale would have to be at least a truck load, and that payment to [] was to be in cash.

"Gillis had called [redacted] of Link Sales Company, Washington, D.C., and [redacted] of Universal Associates, Charleston, West Virginia. I called Harry Markin of Better Products Company, Syracuse, New York. [redacted] and Markin came to Detroit on October 7, 1958, and I think [redacted] came to Detroit on October 9, 1958, to select the merchandise. I took the three above mentioned individuals to the store on Grand River where Scanlon's merchandise was located and these three men then selected the merchandise which they wanted to buy. [redacted] and [redacted] had their trucks deliver this merchandise to the stores owned by these three men. The total sales to these three companies was approximately $13,000.00. Ludwig Rohe, my bookkeeper, listed the merchandise selected by these three men and priced the merchandise. I received checks from these customers and deposited the checks in my company bank account, on some of which payment was stopped. Beron also purchased some merchandise on time payment and I received no commission for it.

b6
b7C

"During this time [redacted] told me that [redacted] [redacted] from Detroit, was in charge of the receiving and shipping of this merchandise. Ludwig Rohe, my bookkeeper, contacted [redacted] to get the keys for the stores on Grand River.

"About September 25, 1958, [redacted] said he had more merchandise coming into Detroit and that he had negotiated to rent a big warehouse on Prairie Avenue, Detroit. At his request I sent my bookkeeper, Ludwig Rohe, over to look at this warehouse and the next day after reporting the condition found by Rohe to [redacted] and after [redacted] advised me of the rental, I sent Rohe to the warehouse with $300 to $400 to make the downpayment for this space. [redacted] asked me to make the downpayment on this warehouse for him. He said he rented this warehouse in the name of [redacted]

b6
b7C

"A few days later [redacted] asked me if I had any big buyers as he would like to sell the rest of merchandise to one buyer. [redacted] said they had shipped in about sixteen trailer loads of merchandise to this warehouse. I said I did not know any buyer who had enough cash to buy this much merchandise. [redacted] asked me if my friend, Jess Beron, Beron Distributing Company, Windsor, Ontario, Canada, could handle the deal. I called Jess and told "him that [] and I would be over to see him.

"Later, Jess Beron told me that he had made a deal with [] whereby he, Beron, would pay [] 35% of the total wholesale cost of the merchandise in the warehouse on Prairie Avenue and Grand River. This amount was to be determined after the merchandise had been listed on forms required to make the payment of duty on merchandise being shipped into Canada. The duty on this merchandise would amount to 30% to 40% of the original factory cost of the merchandise. Beron told me the duty would amount to about $50,000 and that he had contacted various individuals including [] in an attempt to raise this $50,000 required for the duty payment. Beron said [] had agreed to wait for their money until Beron had sold the merchandise or a reasonable period.

b6
1

"On October 15 or 16, 1958, Jess Beron, who was accompanied by [] a department store owner, of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, came to my office to discuss the quality of Scanlon's merchandise which was stored in the two warehouses. [] said that the merchandise was saleable and [] told me he was interested in furnishing the duty money but first wanted to contact his lawyer.

b6
b7C

"About October 17 or 18, 1958, Jess Beron called me and said that [] had contacted a Mr. [] Attorney, of Weiswasser and Jaffe, Detroit, who advised [] to reject the deal. After October 24, Beron said that Weiswasser or Jaffee had contacted a relative in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and had later been informed that Scanlon's was in bankruptcy and that Milwaukee authorities were looking for Mr. [] of Scanlon's.

"Jess Beron told me after [] backed out that he had been contacted by a man named Tony who was interested in putting up the duty money as Tony wanted to get a nephew started in business. Jess brought Tony, whose last name I do not know, to my office I believe on Friday, October 17, 1958, and Tony wanted to see the merchandise. Jess Beron then took Tony to the warehouse and showed him the merchandise. Beron told me he made a deal with Tony and had received $5,000 in good faith.

JDF:hs - 9

"On October 20 I went to the Michigan Bank, Woodward-Boulevard Office, and cashed Rich-Mor Check Number 2725 dated October 11, 1958, in the amount of $5,000.00. This check was payable to cash. I gave [redacted] the $5,000.00 I received from this check. I also asked [redacted] Manager of this bank, to call Cleveland, Ohio, to determine if the two checks of E & A Sales Company had been paid. On this same date I gave a box of invoices for Scanlon's merchandise, which had come into Detroit, to [redacted] along with all other papers and documents pertaining to this merchandise. I also gave [redacted] a detailed listing of expenses which had been paid for [redacted]. I gave him these records at his request. The listings of merchandise that had been shipped to Better Home Products, Universal Associates and Link Sales Company were also given to [redacted] at this time. I settled with him on this date.

b6

"During October I had also given [redacted] a check in the amount of $4,000.00 and a check in the amount of $3,000.00. Each check was payable to cash. I had asked [redacted] to hold these checks for about a week before cashing them. On October 27, 1958, after I was interviewed by FBI Agents, I called the Michigan Bank and was informed that these two checks had not been paid. I then stopped payment on these two checks.

b6
b7C

"During September and October, 1958, Ludwig Rohe and myself made cash payments for advances or expenses of [redacted] totaling about $3,200.00. This cash was obtained from my office cash fund. I also deducted my commission of $800.00 on the total sales of $16,000.00 before making the final settlement with [redacted]. I did not take any commission on the $3,000.00 in checks of E and A Sales Company on which payment was stopped.

"From October 21 to October 24, I was out of the city. On Thursday night, October 23, 1958, I received a message in Kalamazoo from my wife to call Jess Beron. I called Beron, who related to me that he was to meet Tony at the warehouse on that Thursday afternoon and that Tony had arranged for some trucks to pick up the merchandise. About 3:30 PM Jess said Tony arrived with five or six fellows he described as Italians and that they started loading the trucks. Jess said that while in the warehouse

"Two of these men grabbed him and put a knife to his throat and said, "We're taking over". Jess said that he was told to come back to the warehouse on Friday and asked my advice. Jess has since told me that I misunderstood him about the threat and I think I may have.

"I told Beron to try to scare the Italians away by telling them that the FBI was coming or that the cops were coming or something like that. I agreed to meet Beron in Detroit at 12:30 PM on Friday, October 24, 1958, at the corner of Wyoming and Michigan Avenue. I met Beron as agreed. Beron told me that five Italians were at the Prairie Street warehouse on that same Friday morning, October 24, 1958, and had loaded their trucks with merchandise. We then decided to notify [redacted] about this situation. Beron and I went to Northern Discount Corporation and told a fellow I know only as [redacted] that I wanted to get in touch with [redacted]. I told [redacted] that we would be back in about a half hour in case he was able to locate [redacted]. Beron and I then left Northern Discount Corporation and drove past the Prairie Street warehouse to see if anyone was around. We saw no one and returned to Northern Discount Corporation.

b7C

"At this time [redacted] got [redacted] on the telephone and I talked to [redacted]. I met [redacted] at Northern about 40 minutes later and at this time Beron and I told [redacted] that we wanted nothing to do with deal. [redacted] told me that Scanlon's in Milwaukee had gone into bankruptcy and that Mr. [redacted] had fled the country and that everyone was in trouble.

"On Monday, October 27, 1958, I talked again to [redacted] when [redacted] called me at my place of business and at this time I told [redacted] that the FBI had interviewed me at Rich-Mor Sales Company.

b6

"On Tuesday, October 28, 1958, [redacted] called me and told me to get an attorney and attempt to make a deal. [redacted] said the deal would be that all of the merchandise would be given back plus $40,000.00 so that all of the creditors would be satisfied and in view of this all individuals who were indirectly involved would be cleared.

"I talked to [] after I was first interviewed by FBI Agents on October 27, 1958. [] said he would contact me later by calling me and saying that Mr. [] wanted to talk to me, and if I answered the phone he would immediately hang up. When this happened I would immediately go across the street to the Avalon restaurant and wait for [] to call me there on the pay telephone.

"[] called me several times using the above arrangement, and on November 14, 1958, he told me [] had been arrested on the west coast. SA(A)s ROBERT P. KEEHAN and FUSELIER met with JACK SHUBOW and his attorney [REDACTED] so that SHUBOW could sign a statement he had furnished on January 6, 1959. At this time SHUBOW made the following material changes in the statement, which are at variance with the information he had previously furnished Agents KEEHAN and FUSELIER.

1. On page one, paragraph four of the statement as signed, the statement reads, "A business is willing to sell a part of its inventory at up to 50% below cost---". The percentage figure which SHUBOW had furnished on January 6, 1959, was 10%, however, at the time he signed the statement he insisted on changing it to 50%.

Also in the same paragraph, the last line reads "---at 10% to 50% below cost---", whereas the original information furnished by SHUBOW was "---at 10% to 15% below cost---".

2. On page two of signed statement, paragraph two states that [REDACTED] offered SHUBOW merchandise at 65% of invoice cost, whereas SHUBOW had stated on January 6, 1959, that the percentage figures was 50%.

3. On page four, line two of the signed statement states that [REDACTED] called me from Milwaukee and offered me a large amount of distress merchandise---". This line originally read that [REDACTED] had offered him $200,000.00 worth of merchandise.

4. On page five, paragraph one of the signed statement indicates that SHUBOW and GILLIS met with IRVING LICHTERMAN and EDDIE WIGODSKI on September 17, 1958, and indicates that they had had an argument about ten days prior to that time regarding the percentage of cost to be paid for the merchandise. The original information which SHUBOW had furnished on January 6, 1959, was that this argument had occurred on September 17, 1958.

5. On page five, paragraph three of the signed statement reads as follows: "Sometime around September 17, 1958, [] told me that he had sent merchandise to E & A but he did not say how much". The information which SHUBOW had furnished on January 6, 1959, is quoted as follows: "Sometime around September 17, 1958, [] told me that he had sent several trailer loads of merchandise to E & A but he did not say how many."

b6

6. On Page 9, paragraph four, SHUBOW added the following sentence which is the last sentence on this page: "Jess has since told me that I misunderstood him about the threat and I think I may have".

At the time that SHUBOW was signing this statement, he wanted to delete all reference to a threat made against BERON and after a heated argument between [] and SHUBOW, it was decided to leave this information in the statement.

SHUBOW and [] had several arguments about the contents of the statement and [] twice requested Agents to leave the room while had a conference with SHUBOW because he was unable to get SHUBOW to follow his instructions. At one point during these arguments SHUBOW admitted to [] in Agents KEEHAN's and FUSELIER's presence, that he was trying to protect [] and LICHTERMAN in this matter.

On January 26, 1959, [redacted] attorney for JACK SHUBOW, telephonically advised SA(A) KEEHAN that on Friday night, January 23, 1959, a man walked into his office in the Buhl Building and identified himself as [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] told [redacted] he was the attorney representing IRVING LICHTERMAN of E & A Sales Company, Cleveland, Ohio. [redacted] related that during the prior week JACK SHUBOW had received a letter from Mr. [redacted] asking SHUBOW for information regarding sales of Scanlon merchandise to E & A Sales Company. [redacted] said he advised SHUBOW not to answer this letter but that SHUBOW insisted upon answering the letter. [redacted] said he then advised SHUBOW to write a short letter and to tell Mr. [redacted] that his client LICHTERMAN is aware of the same knowledge possessed by SHUBOW. [redacted] said that SHUBOW did not take his advice but wrote a lengthy letter to Mr. [redacted] setting out information similar to that contained in the signed statement furnished by SHUBOW. [redacted] related that as a result of this letter Mr. [redacted] came to him and desired to know what information SHUBOW had furnished to the FBI. [redacted] stated that he refused to permit [redacted] to read the signed statement furnished by SHUBOW and after some discussion explained to Mr. [redacted] how to get to Toledo, Ohio.

On January 12 through 14, 19, 21, 22, and on February 2, 1959, the books and records of Rich-Mor Sales Distributing Company, Inc. (Rich-Mor), 13144 Linwood Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, for the period July 1, 1958, to October 31, 1958, were reviewed. These records had been received from Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] after the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

JACOB LOUIS SHUBOW, aka. JACK SHUBOW, President of Rich-Mor, advised during interviews that he sold merchandise from Scanlon's in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, which merchandise had been transferred to Detroit, Michigan, to [redacted] of Link Sales Company, Washington, D.C., [redacted] of Universal Associates, Charleston, West Virginia, and HARRY MARKIN of Better Home Products Company, Syracuse, New York. SHUBOW said he sold this merchandise for [redacted] and [redacted] on the agreement that SHUBOW would receive a 5% commission based on the selling price. SHUBOW also advised that he was to receive a 5% commission on the sale of merchandise from Scanlon's to E & A Sales Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

SHUBOW and LUDWIG ROHE, bookkeeper for Rich-Mor, identified certain checks and entries in the books and records as pertaining to these transactions, which items are referred to below.

Examination of Rich-Mor records and interview with LUDWIG ROHE, bookkeeper, indicated that upon receiving and depositing a check in payment for a purchase of Scanlon's merchandise, a Rich-Mor check would be drawn in the same amount payable to cash. The Rich-Mor check would be used to pay [redacted] for the merchandise, after deducting expenses paid by Rich-Mor, according to SHUBOW and ROHE. These transactions are, therefore, set out below under the purchaser's name and are summarized hereinafter.

On February 2, 1959, the books and records of Rich-Mor were returned to LUDWIG ROHE, Bookkeeper, upon instructions of Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] [redacted] as the United States Attorney at Milwaukee had issued a subpoena to JACOB LOUIS SHUBOW to appear in Milwaukee with records pertaining to this investigation.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate February 11, 1959

LUDWIG ROHE, Bookkeeper for Rich-Mor Sales Distributing Company, Inc., 13144 Linwood, came to the Detroit Office to obtain the books and records of Rich-Mor for the period July 1, 1958, to October 31, 1958.

It was pointed out to ROHE at this time that the cash receipts record of Rich-Mor shows that on October 8, 1958, a deposit in the amount of $3,222.71 was made in exchange for check #2726. Referenced for this deposit was $2,000.00 received from "Better Homes" and $1,222.71 was shown as "exchange." ROHE was also advised that the duplicate deposit slip of October 8, 1958, showed a check for $1,322.71 but did not show a check in the amount of $2,000.00. ROHE stated that on this date, October 8, 1958, $2,000.00 was received from Better Home Products Co. owned by HARRY MARKIN. ROHE stated that the check in the amount of $1,322.71 was a check from HARRY MARKIN and that MARKIN also gave Rich-Mor $677.29 in cash. ROHE said that on October 8, 1958, the balance in the Rich-Mor bank account was low and that an additional $1,222.71 was deposited to the Rich-Mor account in cash received from JACK SHUBOW and this deposit was recorded as an exchange. ROHE said that an additional check for $2,000.00 was received from Better Home Products Company and this check was deposited about a week later making the total cash received from Better Homes $4,000.00.

It was pointed out to ROHE that he had advised on October 27, 1958, that a truck driver named [redacted] took a load of merchandise to Better Home Products in Syracuse, New York, the previous week. ROHE stated that he recalled this truck drivers name was [redacted] and that he would reaffirm any statement he made on October 27, 1958.

It was also pointed out to ROHE that a shipment went to Better Home Products Company via Riss and Company. ROHE said as he now recalled Riss and Company took two trailer loads of merchandise to Better Homes. Both trailers were loaded with merchandise from Scanlon's in Milwaukee and both were loaded out the same day. He said Riss and Company was hired to haul this load because [redacted] had not showed up to transport this merchandise. ROHE said that [redacted] must, therefore, have taken a third trailer load of merchandise to Better Home Products Company in Syracuse, New York, after the two trailer loads had been shipped via Riss and Company.

Interview with LUDWIG ROHE File # 49-1185 on 2/2/59 at Detroit, Michigan Date dictated 2/6/59
by Special Agent (A) ROBERT P. KEEHAN/SMC

RPK:SMC - 2
DE 49-1185

It was pointed out to ROHE that Riss and Company records show that 570 cartons were shipped on the first trailer and that 429 cartons were shipped on the second trailer making the total number of cartons on these two trailers 999. ROHE was advised that the invoice at Better Home Products Company dated October 9, 1958, only listed 513 cartons. ROHE said that from his experience, the same number of cartons listed on the invoice to Better Homes should appear on the trucking company's invoice and that he, therefore, could not explain the difference between 513 cartons shown on Better Homes Invoice and the 999 cartons listed on the Riss and Company invoices. He said he could not explain the difference unless there was another invoice. ROHE also stated that [REDACTED] may have taken 513 cartons to Better Homes and that the invoice of merchandise shipped via Riss and Company had not been made available by MARKIN.

b6

ROHE was asked what percentage of the cost of the merchandise Better Homes was required to pay. ROHE stated that this percentage was made between JACK SHUBOW and HARRY MARKIN and that all he knows is that he received only $4,000.00 from Better Home Products.

ROHE also advised that the merchandise of Rich-Mor sold to Better Homes on Invoice #9171 was shipped on the second Riss trailer which transported the second load of Scanlon merchandise. ROHE said this Invoice #9171 in the amount of $574.00 had not been paid by Better Home Products and he did not know why this invoice had not been paid. ROHE said he had not talked to HARRY MARKIN regarding this transaction or the transactions regarding the Scanlon merchandise and that he has not been told anything by JACK SHUBOW regarding these transactions.

JDF:DHD - 1

Mr. [REDACTED] Riss and Company, Inc., truckers, advised on January 30, 1958, that invoice number G796738, dated October 14, 1958, reflected that Riss and Company picked up a shipment from the Beverly Company for shipment to Better Home Products, 367 East Onondaga Street, Syracuse, New York. This shipment consisted of 570 cartons and the billing was for $390.40. This invoice bears the following notation: "Trailer full. Overflow to follow on trailer number 2779".

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] also made available invoice number G796741 for trailer number 2779 bearing the same information as above and this shipment consisted of 429 cartons and the billing was in the amount of $263.52.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate February 16, 1959

[redacted] Woodward-Grand Boulevard Branch, The Michigan Bank, advised that he recalled that JACK SHUBOW had requested him to call the Capital Bank, Cleveland, Ohio, sometime in October, 1958, to see if some checks that SHUBOW had deposited had cleared. [redacted] said that he was certain he had made only one call to Cleveland for SHUBOW and that the exact date of this call could be ascertained from the telephone bills maintained at the main office of The Michigan Bank located in the Guardian Building.

[redacted] further advised that The Michigan Bank microfilms all checks drawn on other banks and that the microfilm records were located at the branch bank at 1420 Woodward Avenue.

On January 2, 6 and 14, 1959, JESS JOSEPH BERON, 19451 Mark Twain, Detroit, Michigan, owner of Beron Distributing Company, 1352 Wyandotte Street, East, Windsor, Ontario, Canada, was interviewed in the FBI Office, Detroit, by SA(A) [REDACTED] and SA DOUGLAS W. HIBBE.

On January 20, 1959, BERON furnished the following signed statement to the Agents in the presence of his attorney [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

WLB:SLZ

DE 49-1185

"January 20, 1959
Detroit, Michigan

"I, Jess Joseph Beron, hereby furnish the following free and voluntary statement to [redacted] and Douglas W. Hibbe who have identified themselves to me as being Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have been advised that I do not have to make this statement and that any statement I do make can be used against me in a court of law. I have also been advised that I have the right to consult an attorney of my own choice at any time I desire. No force or threats have been used and no promises or offers of reward have been made to get me to make this statement.

b6
b7C

"I was born on January 22, 1903, in Syracuse, New York, and I presently reside at 19451 Mark Twain, Detroit, Michigan. I am owner and operator of the Beron Distributing Company, 1352 Wyandotte Street, East, Windsor, Ontario, Canada, which is a wholesale and retail business handling housewares, appliances, and similar items.

"to Jack's place of business on Linwood Avenue, Detroit, and I took [] one of my employees, to help me look over the merchandise.

b7C

"While I was at Rich-Mor Sales Company waiting for Jack Shubow, Harry Markum, a whole-sale distributor in business in Syracuse, New York, came in to see Jack so that he could look at the same merchandise. Jack Shubow drove Harry Markum, [] and me over to the Beverly Furniture and Appliance Company, on Grand River near Schoolcraft, Detroit, where the merchandise was stored in that building and the warehouse next door.

"Jack Shubow explained that the merchandise was a distress shipment from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and after we returned from Beverly's Shubow said that [] and his friend [] whose last name I do not recall, were representing the owner of the merchandise and that it was all right to pay him in 30 days if I paid 3% interest. I previously knew [] when he was associated with [] Woodward Avenue, near Larned Street, Detroit, and I have identified a photograph of him. I knew [] from his previous employment at [] and I have identified a photograph of the person known to me as [] Agent [] has advised me that this is a photograph of []

b7C

"Jack Shubow's bookkeeper, Ludwig, whose last name I do not recall, was already at Beverly's and he showed us the merchandise and told us the amount of the invoice cost. I looked at some of the invoices and saw that they were invoices from the various manufacturers to Scanlon's in Milwaukee. The merchandise was in the original cartons, and the ones I examined had stickers which showed that it had been sent by the manufacturer to Scanlon's in Milwaukee.

61

"I let [] pick out, from the invoices to Scanlon's, what he thought was saleable, and Ludwig wrote down what we wanted. [] picked out $2,490.99 worth of merchandise, at my cost, which was approximately 50% on the dollar. The invoice cost of this merchandise was approximately $4,200.00. Jack Shubow told me, when he first called me on the telephone, that I could take the goods on a 30 day credit basis and pay an additional 3% of the cost of the goods for not paying cash. I was supposed to pay Shubow for the merchandise, but I have not made any payments on it as of this date.

"Although I bought some of the merchandise on October 9, 1958, at approximately 50% of invoice price, this is not the only cost to me. I also had to pay the Canadian duty on the merchandise which duty is based on the actual invoice price. The cost to me was about equal to the wholesale cost for dealers in Detroit since I have to pay the Canadian duty, transportation costs, and storage costs to bring the goods to Canada.

"We all returned to Rich-Mor Sales Company where Ludwig totaled up the amount of my purchase. Ludwig probably made out the necessary declaration forms, known as M. A. forms, which are required to bring merchandise into Canada on the next day. I have examined my copy of these forms, on this date, and I see that they indicate the merchandise was purchased on October 10, 1958, from the Beverly Furniture and Appliance Company, 14442 Grand River, Detroit, and that the name [] was signed as being a representative of that company. I do not know anyone named [] and I do not know who signed that name to the forms.

b7C

"When we got back to Rich-Mor Sales Company, [] a wholesale distributor in business in Charleston, West Virginia, was waiting to see Jack Shubow so that he could look at the same merchandise, and before I left, [] [] out of Washington, D.C., came in Shubow's place for the same reason.

b6
b7C

"After Ludwig finished totaling up the amount of my purchase, [] and I went back to Canada where either [] or I telephoned the Kingsway Trucking Company, Windsor, Canada, to make arrangements for them to pick up the merchandise on the next day. On the next day, [] went over to Beverly's and had the truck loaded and shipped the merchandise to my place of business, 1352 Wyandotte Street, East, Windsor, Canada. My idea for buying the merchandise was to send it out to other Canadian distributors, as samples, to see if they could handle it, and if so, I could obtain more merchandise from Jack Shubow. I still have approximately $1,200.00 of the merchandise left, at my cost. When this merchandise was delivered, I had it stacked separately from my other merchandise, so I can identify it even though I have had the labels cut off of all the boxes. It is a common business practice, for me, to have the labels cut off of all merchandise so that my customers won't know who I bought it from and be able to find out how much it cost me or be able to buy it direct from the manufacturer.

"On approximately Friday, October 17, 1958, I received a telephone call from Jack Shubow, during which he inquired as to whether I could handle a lot of merchandise if I bought it at a reasonable price. Jack said that [] was there and he and [] wanted to come over to talk with me. That afternoon, Jack Shubow and [] came over to my place of business in Windsor, Canada, and [] wanted to know if I could use a big quantity of merchandise if he sold it to me at a very reasonable price. He said that the owner of the merchandise needs money very

"badly and that I could buy it at 35¢ on the dollar. I told him that I did not have the money to buy a big quantity of merchandise. He said that he would give me a better proposition and that if I bought the merchandise and paid the Canadian duty, to bring it into Canada, I would not have to pay him for the merchandise until it was all sold. I asked him how much the duty would be, and he estimated it as being in the neighborhood of $35,000.00 to $40,000.00. I told him that I did not have that kind of money, and he stated that he did not want to piece meal it out but wanted to sell the merchandise in one whole lot. I suggested to [] that I might be able to get someone to put up the duty money and asked him if they could take out enough merchandise to cover the cost of the duty right away. He said that it would be alright and that the buyer could go to his lawyer and have the lawyer make out a bill of sale any way he wanted it written and that the owner of the merchandise, whom he did not name, would sign it.

b6
b7C

"I asked [] how I could see the merchandise, and he said it was stored in a warehouse in Detroit, Michigan, and that he had left the key at Rich-Mor Sales Company. He also said that the original invoices, from the manufacturers, for the merchandise were also at Rich-Mor Sales Company. [] stated that he would be in touch with Jack Shubow, and that if I found someone to buy the merchandise I should let Jack know.

b6

"I called a few business associates on that same day to see if they knew anyone who could use the large quantity of merchandise.

"On Monday, October 20, 1958, I contacted [] a business man in Windsor, Canada, and I explained what [] had said and asked [] if he could raise the duty money, with the understanding that merchandise to cover the duty cost would be taken right off the top and the profits from the sale of the rest of the merchandise would be split half and half.

[] wanted to know what kind of merchandise was involved, and I told him that I did not know but that we could look at the invoices. I met [] near the Rich-Mor Sales Company, on the morning of October 21, 1958, and introduced him to Jack Shubow. I told Jack Shubow that [] wanted to see the invoices in connection with the merchandise that Jack Shubow and [] had for sale. Jack pulled out a cardboard box which contained approximately 15 manila envelopes, and I estimate that each envelope contained approximately 20 to 30 invoices covering the merchandise. [] and I looked at some of the invoices, and I recall that they showed the purchaser as being Scanlon Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Shubow said that the cost to [] and I was 35¢ on the dollar. [] asked Jack if it would be alright to call his attorney about the deal, and Jack said that he would be glad to have him call. [] phoned his attorney while we were in Jack Shubow's office, and I heard [] tell about the deal and the fact that the merchandise had originally been sold by the manufacturers to Scanlon Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. [] said that his attorney did not know anything about the merchandise, but that he would get some information and let [] know. [] said that he would let me know what his lawyer said as soon as he received a report from him.

"On Tuesday, October 21, 1958, at approximately noon time, I received a call from [] and he advised that he was not interested in the merchandise until he received some information about it.

b6
b7C

"On approximately Saturday, October 18, 1958, or Monday, October 20, 1958, while at my place of business in Windsor, Canada, [] whom I had previously talked to in connection with the purchase of the merchandise, personally told me and [] that a friend of his named [] was interested in the merchandise. I am not positive about [] full name, but I believe it "is [] and he is either [] Erie Street, Windsor, Canada. [] said that [] were going to put up the duty money for the purchase of the merchandise to set [] up in business.

"On Tuesday afternoon, October 21, 1958, at approximately 1:30 to 2:00 p.m., [] brought [] and Anthony 'Tony' Thomas over to my place of business to see me. Tony said that his last name was Kritch or Kritchner; however, later I learned that his name was Anthony Thomas, and I have identified a photograph as being identical with him. I have also identified a photograph as being identical with []

"Tony told me that [] had failed in several other business deals but that he and four other [] had decided to give [] a last chance to get set up in a business of his own. I explained [] proposition and told Tony that the only way he could buy the merchandise would be to bring it over to Canada and pay the duty on it. Tony said that he was not going to trust [] anymore and that he wanted me to take care of the merchandise for him. Tony said that the cost of the duty would be taken from the first sales and returned to him, after which I was to handle things for [] and that [] and I would split the profits half and half after business costs. Tony said that this deal may be just the thing he had been looking for, but that first he wanted to see the invoices and the merchandise.

"Later that same afternoon, Tuesday, October 21, 1958, [] called my place of business and told [] that if it was alright for him to put up a deposit on the purchase of the merchandise, to have me come over to the Erie Bakery, Erie Street, Windsor, and give him a receipt for it. At approximately 5 or 5:30 p.m. that day, I met [] in the Erie Bakery, and he said that Tony wanted to bind the deal and wanted to give me a deposit. I told him that I did not want a deposit

"and that Tony did not have to give a deposit in a deal like this since Tony was going to pay the Canadian duty. [] said that Tony wanted to bind the deal in a real business way, and that this was the way he does business. [] took out a roll of American money and counted it out to me. He gave me $5,000.00 in $100's, $50's and $20's. I gave [] a receipt in his name for that amount and signed my own name to it.

b7C

"On Wednesday, October 22, 1958, at approximately 2 to 2:30 p.m., Tony and [] came over to my place of business in Windsor, Canada, and I drove them, in my car, over to Jack Shubow's Rich-Mor Sales Company in Detroit, Michigan. [] may have stayed in the automobile while Tony and I went inside or he may have waited in the front part of the store. I introduced Tony, as Tony Kritch or Kritchner, to Jack Shubow and told him Tony was interested in the merchandise Shubow and [] had for sale. Shubow pulled out the cardboard box containing the same manila envelopes and invoices he had shown [] Jack showed Tony some of the Scanlon Radio and Music Shop invoices, but Tony only looked at two or three of them and said he wanted to see the merchandise.

"Jack Shubow told his bookkeeper, Ludwig, to take Tony and I over to the warehouse where the merchandise was stored.

"I drove Ludwig, Tony, and [] over to a warehouse on Prairie Street, Detroit, Michigan, following the directions given by Ludwig. Ludwig had a key to the warehouse and opened the door for us. Ludwig showed Tony the merchandise and I looked around too while [] just stood at the door. I noticed that all of the stickers I saw showed that the merchandise had been shipped by the manufacturers to Scanlon Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Tony looked around for approximately 5 to 10 minutes and said that he was satisfied and that we should make some money on it. He said that it was a deal.

b7C

"After dropping Ludwig off at Rich-Mor Sales Company, I drove towards the tunnel to Canada. Tony got out of the car on the Detroit side of the tunnel and said he was going to catch a taxi. I took [] back to Canada, and he got out of the car on Ouellette or Erie Street, Windsor. After I let [] out of the car, I went back to my place of business on Wyandotte Street, East, Windsor.

b6
b7C

"At about 4:30 or 5:00 p.m. that same day, Wednesday, October 22, 1958, I went over to the Erie Bakery and talked to []. I sat in my car, which was parked in front of the bakery, while [] stood on the curb. [] said that he and Tony would meet me at Rich-Mor Sales Company, Detroit, or across the street from it at the Avalon Restaurant, on the following morning at approximately 9:00 a.m. to arrange for shipping the merchandise to Canada. [] had previously examined a warehouse on Gladstone Street, Windsor, Canada, and had determined that there was approximately 10,000 square feet of storage space available to store the merchandise, and I told [] about this warehouse. I had previously called the Smith's Transport Company, Windsor, Canada, and was told the rate to ship the merchandise from Detroit to Canada would be $90.00 a truck load, and I told [] about the cost of the trucks. [] told me that Tony could get a truck at half that price, but he agreed to everything else I suggested and told me that he was leaving everything up to me.

b7C

"They had not shown up at Rich-Mor Sales Company by approximately 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, October 23, 1958, so I called [] at the Erie Bakery, and he said that he had been having trouble with the bakery truck drivers and that he would meet me at Rich-Mor Sales Company in either 30 minutes or an hour. While I was waiting for them at Rich-Mor Sales Company, I obtained the key to the warehouse on Prarie Street from Ludwig.

66

"At approximately 10:30 or 11:00 a.m., Tony came into Rich-Mor Sales Company through the back door and motioned for me to follow him out. He walked over to what I believe was a blue automobile that had a wide aluminum strip on the side and which appeared to be a late model Chrysler product since it had large fins. I got in the back seat beside Tony and there was a big man sitting behind the steering wheel and another man was sitting up front beside him. I have described the big man in the driver's seat as being white, [redacted] weighing [redacted] pounds, medium build, dark complexion, black hair, and [redacted]

b6

[redacted] I have described the passenger, who was sitting up front with the big guy, as being white, male, short stocky build, [redacted] at least [redacted] years old, not too dark complexion but possibly of [redacted] and he speaks pretty good English. Both men were wearing business suits. I have examined a group of photographs shown to me by Agent [redacted] and I have identified a photograph as being the photograph of the big guy who was the driver of the automobile. Agent [redacted] has advised me that this is a photograph of [redacted] I have also identified a photograph as being a photograph of the other man sitting in the front seat of the car. Agent [redacted] has advised me that this is a photograph of Samuel Salvatore Finazzo. I believe the big guy was referred to by the name of [redacted] and I have seen the other man several times since then, and he is referred to by the name of Sam.

"As soon as I got in the car, the big guy started driving, and he drove us over to the warehouse on Prairie Street, near Lyndon Street, Detroit, following the directions given by Tony. On the way over, the big guy said 'you know what this is! We're taking over.' I asked him what he meant, and he said that the merchandise was theirs. I asked him if they were stealing the merchandise and he said that they were. He said "that they had as much right to the merchandise as Shubow and [] and that if I kept my mouth shut I would not get into trouble. I told them they could not get away with it, and the big guy said that they knew what they were doing. He said that they were not the only ones who were looking for the merchandise; that they had been looking for the warehouse for 2 weeks; and that 15 or 20 other people had been looking for it. Tony told the big guy to show me the phone number he had. The big guy pulled a slip of paper out of his pocket and showed it to me. It looked like a phone number, but I do not recall what exchange or numbers were written on the paper. The big guy told me that they had received a phone call from Milwaukee that the warehouse was on Prairie Street but that they did not know where.

"When we got to the warehouse on Prairie Street, we all got out of the car, and Tony told me to open the door. I unlocked the door, and I do not remember if Tony or one of the other two men took the key from me then or later, but I know they had the key when we left the warehouse.

"After I unlocked the door, Tony, the big guy and I went inside the dark warehouse, and the big guy said 'If you play ball with us nobody is going to get hurt.' Tony then turned the lights on, and he and the big guy started looking at some of the merchandise. I do not remember if Sam went into the warehouse or if he stayed at the warehouse door. Tony and the big guy said something to each other in Italian, and the big guy said 'Let him talk' referring to me. He then asked me what was in the boxes, and I told him that they would have to open them up. He then asked me how much the stuff was worth, and I do not remember how much I told him. I was afraid of what they might do if I did not do as they said. I was more scared of the big guy because of his manner of speech which was in a demanding tone like this was old business to him. There was no doubt in my mind that these men were hi-jacking the merchandise, and I felt that my life was in jeopardy.

"It is now apparent to me that they contacted me merely to locate the merchandise and that they gave me the $5,000.00 deposit only to make the transaction look legitimate.

"They took me back to where my car was parked and let me out. I was scared, and I don't remember exactly what they said on the way back to my car, but I do recall that they were talking about a truck.

"When they let me out, I went over to the Rich-Mor Sales Company. I was afraid that Shubow and [] would hold me responsible for the loss of the merchandise, and I wanted to tell Shubow what had happened as soon as I could and do whatever Shubow wanted me to do and for that reason I did not notify the police, and I was also scared of the Italians.

b6
b7C

"Shubow was not there and neither was his bookkeeper, Ludwig, who I believe had gone to see a doctor that afternoon. I called several places trying to contact Jack Shubow, and I got in my car and drove over to a couple of business places Jack frequently contacts, but I was unable to locate him.

I did not know if Tony, [] and Sam had gone back to the warehouse or not so I drove over there to find out. The warehouse was closed, but I noticed a truck trailer, with Illinois license plates, parked in the lot and there was an automobile stalled in the lot.

"Tony, with another man driving, came up in an automobile while I was there. Tony asked me who the trailer belonged to, and I told him that it belonged to [] and that [] must be coming over to the warehouse and that he would call the police if he saw Tony there and that Tony had better leave. Tony said that he was not worried about anyone calling the police since the merchandise was stolen anyway. He said that he did not want the police called about it and that I had better keep my mouth shut. He said that he would leave when he got ready.

"Tony unlocked and opened the door to the warehouse, and a few minutes later a red truck drove up with two or three young white men on it. There was a roller type conveyor belt inside the warehouse, and they used it and started loading the merchandise on the truck.

"I left while they were loading, and I stopped at a public phone booth and called Jack Shubow's wife. She told me that Jack was in Kalamazoo, Michigan, and I told her to have Jack call me at my home as soon as she could get in touch with him. At approximately 9 or 9:30 p.m., Jack called me at the Sidney-Hill Health Club, on West 8 Mile Road, Detroit, and I told him about the Italians, referring to Tony, [redacted] and Sam, taking the merchandise. He said that he would try to contact [redacted] who stayed at a motel in Detroit. He said that the Italians would probably be loading merchandise again in the morning and that I should go over to the warehouse and try to scare them by saying that the police would be on their tail if they did not scam out of there. I told Jack that I did not want to go near them so he told me that he was coming back to Detroit in the morning and that I should meet him at approximately 12 noon at Michigan Avenue and Wyoming Avenue, Detroit.

b7C

"Although I was afraid of the Italians, I decided to go over to the warehouse on Prairie Street and see if they were loading merchandise and try to scare them off. On Friday morning, October 24, 1958, at approximately 9:00 or 9:15 a.m., I drove over to the warehouse and saw them loading a different truck. Tony was there and was loading too. Tony and the big guy, who drove the car on the previous day, came over to me, and I told them I had contacted the owner of the merchandise and that he was coming over and was going to call the law if they were still there. The big guy said to let him come ahead because he could not call the law since the stuff was stolen anyway. I told them that the police would "be investigating it and that seemed to make them think. Tony said that they would be out of there by 2:00 or 3:00 that afternoon, and that he would close the place down and take the key to the warehouse over to Rich-Mor Sales Company and leave it there.

"After I talked to Tony and the big guy, I drove over to Windsor where I conducted some business following which I drove over to the corner of Michigan and Wyoming, Detroit, where I met Jack Shubow, at about 12:30 p.m. I told Jack that the Italians were loading the merchandise over at the warehouse on Prairie Street and that if we went over there and they saw Jack they might leave. At first Jack said that he would not go over there and that he was going to get in touch with [redacted] through the Admiral Finance Company on West Warren, Detroit; however, he finally decided that he would drive by the warehouse to see if they were still loading.

"When we got over to the warehouse, it was closed up, and we did not see them.

b7C

"Jack then drove over to the Admiral Finance Company on West Warren and asked to see the manager whose name was [redacted] was out to lunch so we drove around for approximately a half hour. When we returned, Jack asked [redacted] to help him contact [redacted] said that [redacted] had called him on the previous day and that he was presently staying at a motel in Detroit. [redacted] called the motel and [redacted] was in his room. Jack Shubow told [redacted] over the phone that he had important bad news to tell him, and made arrangements to meet [redacted] at the Admiral Finance Company.

"Jack and I drove around for awhile, and when we returned to the finance company, approximately a half hour later, [redacted] was there and came out and got into Jack's car. Jack drove around while he and I told [redacted] what had happened.

[] guessed that the Italians could have been from Cleveland, Ohio, but said that there was nothing that he could do and that he was going to call [] Jack dropped [] off at the finance company and dropped me off near Michigan and Wyoming. It was approximately 4:30 p.m. at that time.

b6

"At approximately 10 p.m. that night, Jack called me and said that I had better go down to a restaurant on Linwood, near Philadelphia or Euclid, on the following morning which was Saturday, October 25, 1958. He said that [] had called [] and that [] wanted to hear my story.

"At approximately 9:30 a.m. Saturday, October 25, 1958, I went down to the restaurant where I met [] and [] who were sitting in the back of the restaurant eating. I told them the details about the Italians stealing the merchandise. [] seemed to be the boss and was making the decisions. Both of them said the Italians could not be the outfit from Cleveland, Ohio, because they could not have found the warehouse. Approximately 20 minutes or so after I got there, Jack Shubow came in, and we all went out and got in one of our cars. We drove around while [] and [] talked about who the Italians could be and who had told them about the warehouse. Either [] or [] mentioned the names [] or [] as being drivers of the trucks that had brought the merchandise to the Prairie Street warehouse from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b7C

"I left Jack, [] and [] at approximately 12 noon and went to the Sidney-Hill Health Club on West 8 Mile Road, Detroit, for lunch and listened to the pre-game comments of the Notre Dame - Purdue football game on the radio or television. I then drove over to Windsor, Canada, and stayed in my store on Wyandotte Street until approximately 5 or 5:30 p.m.

72

"I did not receive any calls or talk to anyone in regards to the Italians from approximately 12 noon Saturday, October 25, 1958, to approximately 10 a.m. Monday, October 27, 1958.

"At approximately 10 or 10:30 a.m. Monday, October 27, 1958, I got a phone call from [redacted]. He told me that I had been at a meeting that morning at 9 a.m. at Rich-Mor Sales Company, Detroit, and that [redacted] had been there since he had seen [redacted] automobile, with Illinois license plates, in front of the place. [redacted] asked me what the FBI men had said to me, and I told him that he was crazy because I had not been to Shubow's place that day and that I did not believe that the FBI had been there.

b6
b7C

"After I finished talking to [redacted] I called Jack Shubow at Rich-Mor Sales Company, since I thought [redacted] was lying, but Jack told me that the FBI agents were at his place then.

"On Monday afternoon, October 27, 1958, I received a phone call from [redacted] who wanted his $5,000.00 deposit back. I told him that I would give him the deposit if he would give me back my receipt. [redacted] said he would not give the receipt back so I did not return the deposit.

"On Monday afternoon, I stopped by the Rich-Mor Sales Company, on my way home, and talked to Jack Shubow. Shubow told me that FBI Agents had been there and had looked through his warehouse.

"On Monday night, while at home, I received a phone call at approximately 6:30 or 6:45 p.m. from an unknown man who told me that [redacted] wanted me to come over to Windsor, Canada, to see him right away and that it was very important. I told him that I wasn't coming over to see [redacted]. At approximately 7:15 p.m. that same night, I received a phone call from [redacted] who told me the same thing, and I told [redacted] that I wasn't coming to Windsor. At approximately

"7:30 p.m. that night, I received a phone call from [] who told me that he wanted to see me about the receipt that I had given him and that I had better come over to see him at the Bali-Hi Motel on Ouellette Street, Windsor, Canada, right away. I was not feeling good that night so on the way to the Motel I bought some 4-way cold tablets. When I got to the Bali-Hi Motel, [] and Sam were there although Sam seemed to be staying in the background. [] and [] were talking about having me change the receipt I had given [] so that Tony Thomas' name would be on it instead of [] but [] decided that it would be better to have another receipt, in Tony's name, signed by someone who had charge of the warehouse. [] said that [] couldn't be brought into this and that they had to leave [] out of it. [] said that Tony had already done time for double murder and couldn't take the chance of getting himself involved in anything and had to have a receipt in his own name to show that he had a right to the merchandise. While I was there [] went out the door of the motel room and came back in with the receipt I had given [] for the $5,000.00 deposit. [] told me to write a new receipt for $5,000.00 showing that the merchandise had been sold on October 22, 1958, to Anthony Thomas and sign it in the name of someone who had charge of the warehouse. I did not want to write another receipt, but I was afraid of them, and the manner in which [] talked about Tony doing time for double murder scared me. [] told me that they wanted the receipt by 9 or 9:15 a.m. the next morning because Tony had to take it to the police authorities at 10:00 a.m. Either [] or [] called Tony on the telephone, and I talked to him. Tony told me to bring the receipt to him in the restaurant at the Alamo Motel on Woodward Avenue, Detroit, between 9 and 9:15 a.m. the next morning, Tuesday, October 28, 1958.

"I do not recall Sam saying anything, but I recall seeing him in the motel room. [] and [] also talked about the deal being legitimate as far as they and Tony were concerned and that

"Tony had a legitimate right to take the merchandise. They were talking about it in such a manner that they indicated to me that if I were asked about it by the FBI, I should also say that Tony had a legitimate right to take the merchandise. I was afraid of what they might do to me so I told them I would say what they wanted me to say.

"I was afraid and did not know what to do so when I saw Jack Shubow as I was going in the Sidney-Hill Health Club on West 8 Mile Road, Detroit, that same night, I told him about talking with the Italians and asked him what I should do about writing the phoney receipt in the name of Anthony Thomas. Jack told me that since I did not want to write the receipt, I should have someone else write it for me. The Italians wanted the receipt signed in the name of someone who had charge of the warehouse, and I did not know what name to use. Shubow told me to have the receipt signed in the name of [redacted] and I believe that this was the first time that I had ever heard that name.

b7C

"The next morning, Tuesday, October 28, 1958, I went over to my place of business in Windsor, Canada, and asked one of my employees, [redacted] Windsor, Canada, to write the receipt for me. [redacted] wrote the receipt showing that Anthony Thomas had paid $5,000.00, on October 22, 1958, for merchandise, and he signed the name [redacted] to the receipt.

"I took the receipt to the restaurant at the Alamo Motel on Woodward Avenue, several blocks north of Vernor Street, Detroit, on Tuesday morning at approximately 9 a.m. Tony was in the back of the restaurant, and I gave him the receipt. Tony told me that when the FBI questioned me about the merchandise, I was to say that he, Tony, had made a legitimate purchase on October 22, 1958.

"On Wednesday morning, October 29, 1958, at approximately noon time, I received a phone call from [] who wanted me to meet him at a restaurant, the name of which I do not recall, on Walker Road, near Windsor, Canada, for lunch. I went out to the restaurant and had lunch with [] and Sam. [] asked me when I would give him the $5,000.00 deposit back, and I told him that I would return it whenever they wanted it.

b6
b7C

"On Thursday, October 30, 1958, between approximately 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., while I was at the Sidney-Hill Health Club on West 8 Mile Road, Detroit, I received a phone call from []. He said that Tony wanted me to be over at the office of Tony's attorney, [] in Room [] Penobscot Building, Detroit, at noon the next day, which was Friday October 31, 1958.

"I arrived at the office of [] Room [] Penobscot Building, Detroit, at approximately 12 noon on October 31, 1958. [] was there with Tony Thomas, but I believe [] waited in the anteroom while Tony and I went into the office of []. Tony did most of the talking while we were in the office and said that he knew everything about the law covering the purchase of merchandise like he had made and that everything was legal as concerns his dealings with me. I was in Mr. [] office for only approximately 2 to 3 minutes when Mr. [] stated that he was unable to devote more time to this matter and that I should come back Monday morning, November 3, 1958. After I left Mr. [] office, Tony, [] and I went around the corner to a bar where [] told me to tell the FBI the same story that he had told me, to the effect that Tony had legitimately purchased the merchandise from me. I left Tony and [] at approximately 12:45 and went to the office of Mr. [] my attorney at that time, and advised him of the meeting following which I went to the office of the FBI to keep my previously arranged appointment, and I also told the FBI about this meeting.

b7C

"On Saturday morning, November 1, 1958, at approximately 10:30 a.m., I received a phone call from [redacted]. He told me to come on down to the Tunnel Bar-B-Q, in Windsor, Canada, since he and [redacted] wanted to talk to me. When I got there, [redacted] were waiting for me. [redacted] told me that he did not care who got hurt in this thing, but that he did not want his friend [redacted] to get hurt, and that he wanted [redacted] kept out of it.

b6
b7C

"I would also like to say that it was Friday, October 24, 1958, several days after Tony, [redacted] and I were at the warehouse on Prairie Street, that I heard from [redacted] in regards to his possible purchase of the merchandise. [redacted] told me that he had received a report from his lawyer to the effect that the authorities in Milwaukee were looking for a man called [redacted] who was the owner of Scanlon Radio and Music Shop, because he had skipped out with several hundred thousand dollars worth of merchandise.

"On the day that Jack Shubow and [redacted] came over to my place of business in Windsor, Canada, and offered to sell me the large quantity of Scanlon merchandise, my employees [redacted] and [redacted] were present, and I believe that they heard part of what [redacted] and I said in connection with the deal. [redacted] sat next to me most of the time they were there, and he should be able to recall what was said.

b7C

"During December, 1958, and on January 1, 1959, I received calls from [redacted] demanding the return of the $5,000.00 deposit; however he did not want to return the receipt that I had given him. On January 8, 1959, I met [redacted] and Sam in the office of my attorney, [redacted] 1512 Dime Building, Detroit, and the $5,000.00 in cash was turned over to [redacted] in the presence of Sam, at which time [redacted] returned the receipt that I had given him.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM * UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO: SAC, DETROIT (49-1185)

DATE: February 9, 1959
Date Dictated: 1/26/59

FROM: SA(A) JOHN D. FUSELIER

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] aka., ET AL
ITSP - CONSPIRACY

ANTHONY THOMAS was contacted telephonically on January 22, 1959, at which time he agreed to an interview at the Detroit Office on January 26, 1959. THOMAS appeared at the Detroit Office on January 26, 1959, and was interviewed by SA(A) FUSELIER and SA FREDERICK J. PETERSEN.

b6
b7C

THOMAS stated that he had asked JESS BERON to go to the office of his attorney, [REDACTED] and tell [REDACTED] the full, true story as to his dealings with the Scanlon merchandise.

THOMAS was asked to relate his knowledge as to this matter and said that he knew that the Federal Bureau of Investigation knew the whole story and he had nothing to add to it. THOMAS stated that at the time he gave SA FUSELIER a receipt for his down payment of $5,000.00 on the merchandise, he believed the receipt to have been the original receipt, however, he later learned that this was a phony receipt.

THOMAS said that he did not know who paid the $5,000.00, who received it or when this payment was made as he was not present when the payment was made.

THOMAS stated that he did not know exactly what deal was made with JESS BERON and that all he knew was that his boss told him to move some merchandise to [REDACTED] warehouse and he moved it.

THOMAS also stated that, during previous interviews, he had been trying to protect JESS BERON and a couple of other men and he still felt a duty to protect his employer. THOMAS stated that because of this, he did not want to answer any further questions in this matter.

THOMAS stated that he was born on October 8, 1916 at Inseental (phonetic) Texas, which is near San Antonio, and he has resided in Detroit since he was two or three years old.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate February 18, 1959

SAMUEL SALVATORE FINAZZO, aka., SAM FINAZZO, was contacted telephonically on February 11, 1959, and on February 12, 1959 he appeared at the Detroit Office for an interview.

FINAZZO said that TONY THOMAS, who was formerly employed by him at the Rex Bargain Store, had made arrangements to buy some merchandise at 35% of cost from JESS BERON in October, 1958. FINAZZO said that THOMAS had borrowed $5,000 to make the down payment on this merchandise but he would not admit that he, FINAZZO, had put up the money for the deposit. Later in the interview, FINAZZO related that he had made several attempts to collect this $5,000 from BERON.

FINAZZO said that he had some friends in Milwaukee whom he contacted occasionally but he declined to identify his friends.

FINAZZO stated that TONY had agreed with BERON to take the merchandise to Canada, however he, FINAZZO, did not go for paying $40,000 to $50,000 customs duty on the merchandise and he had decided not to take it to Canada.

FINAZZO stated that as far as he was concerned, he had made a legitimate purchase and he refused to discuss this matter any further. He said that if he had to go to court in this matter, he would say whatever he had to say in court.

In an effort to locate ROBERT PAYNE, a truck driver, believed to have been used by [] and [] to transport merchandise from Milwaukee to Detroit, Mr. [] Dane Valz Mobil Service Station, Belleville, Michigan, advised on December 30, 1958, that he did not know a ROBERT PAYNE who had purchased gasoline from his service station on September 20 and 24, 1958, using Socony Mobil credit card number []

b6
b7C

On December 30, 1958, [] Dane Valz Service Station, also advised that he did not know ROBERT PAYNE.

By communication dated December 18, 1958, the Milwaukee Office advised that records of the Wisconsin telephone company revealed that [] had called Scanlon's warehouse, West Allis, Wisconsin, from telephone number UNI-2-2785, Detroit, UNI-1-4646, Detroit and RO-7-8511, from Tekonsha, Michigan, all three calls having been made on October 10, 1958.

Bresser's Cross Index telephone directory reflects that telephone number UN 22785 is listed to Wagner Brothers, 7531 Lyndon Street.

On December 29, 1958, [] Wagner Brothers, Division of Allied Research Corporation, advised that truck drivers making deliveries at this warehouse frequently called their office or discharger from his telephone. [] searched his files but was unable to locate any record of any delivery made to the warehouse on October 10, 1958. [] said that he could not recall anyone named [] making a call from his telephone and he has never heard of []. It may be noted that the Wagner Brothers warehouse is located only three blocks away from the [] warehouse where the Scanlon merchandise was stored in Detroit.

b6
b7C

It may also be noted that telephone number UN 1-4606 was previously ascertained to be located at the [] warehouse.

The Milwaukee Office also advised by communication dated December 18, 1958, that the following toll calls were made to telephone number [] the former residence of [] at the Embassy Motel, Milwaukee.

Bresser's Cross Index directory indicates that telephone number [redacted] is listed to [redacted] at [redacted] Detroit; telephone number TY 8-3800 is listed to the Admiral Finance Company and telephone number WO 2-0003 is listed to GRANT, JAFE, and WEISWASSER, Attorneys.

On December 31, 1958, [redacted] Detroit, advised that he has never called Milwaukee, and he did not know of anyone in his household who may have called anyone in Milwaukee as no one in his family has any acquaintances or business dealings with anyone in Milwaukee.

It may be noted that the telephone number of Rich-Mor Sales, owned by Subject JACK SHUBOW, is TO 8-3406 and it is possible that an error was made in this listing.

By communication dated January 9, 1959, the Milwaukee Office advised that the Patented Products Corporation, Danville, Ohio, shipped to Scanlon's 9/17/58, fifty Electro Warmth bed warmers. Attached to each bed warmer was a registration card which is to be mailed by the ultimate consumer to Patented Products for warranty. The card has the same serial number as the warmer.

The Milwaukee Office also advised that [redacted] received information from Patented Products indicating that card # 89742, postmarked Garden City, Michigan, 12/31/58, such number belonging to a bed warmer shipped to Scanlon's, was received from one [redacted] Michigan, purchased December 25, 1958.

The Milwaukee Office advised by communication dated January 27, 1959, that [redacted] had advised that he had received a letter from Patented Products Corporation, Danville, Ohio, advising of the receipt of a second registration card on an Electro Warmth bedwarmer, number 89766, purchaser indicated to have been [redacted] no address given.

[redacted] Michigan, advised on February 9, 1959, that her mother had given her an electric bedwarmer for a Christmas present.

b6
b7C

After contacting her mother telephonically, Mrs. [redacted] advised that this bedwarmer was purchased from Bizon Sales Company at 8676 12th Street, Detroit.

[redacted] Kinsey and Koploy, Auctioneers, 1426 National Bank Building, advised on February 10, 1959, that Bizon Sales Company had purchased 28 bedwarmers at the auction sale of Scanlon Merchandise held on December 5, 1958, at Detroit.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORT

March 6, 1959

[redacted] 400 6th Street, Sioux City, Iowa, advised he is [redacted] of Call Combs, a division of Call Bond and Mortgage Company, an Iowa corporation of which he is [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] stated Call Combs has patented, manufactures, and sells a comb, which has Ball Points in the teeth of the combs through which oil is placed on the scalp.

b6
b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated they have been placing advertisements in numerous publications, including newspapers and magazines, advertising this comb. He said apparently the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop concern of 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin, had observed one of these advertisements and by postcard, bearing Scanlon's advertising, dated Milwaukee, Wisconsin, August 12, 1958, addressed to Call Combs, 400 6th Street, Sioux City, Iowa, had written as follows:

"Gentleman:

"Please forward any and all literature, or catalogs, and price list of items you have available at a direct price for volume purchases.

"Thank you,

"Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop
Here Since 1933
707 W. Wisconsin Ave. Milwaukee 3, Wis."

Mr. [redacted] advised by letter of August 14, 1958, he had forwarded some literature to Scanlon's and had quoted prices for the combs. This letter is as follows:

"Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop
707 W. Wisconsin Avenue
Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin

"Gentlemen:

b6
b7C

"Enclosed please find some of our literature and pictures illustrating our new ball point comb.

"We are retailing these combs at $2.95 and shipping them parcel post pre-paid.

on 2/26/59 at Sioux City, Iowa (Date Dictated: 2/26/59)
by Special Agent HAYNE A. THOMPSON:asm

OM 87-5123

"They come in colors of dark blue, ruby, and marbelized biege and the dozen comb orders are usually supplied with these three colors in equal amounts.

"Thanking you for your inquiry and looking forward to a possible order, I am

"Yours truly,"

Mr. [] advised within a few days they had received an order from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop under order number A1010, dated August 18, 1958, ordering 2 gross Groom-Master Combs at $1.45 each. This order was signed by []

b6
b7C

Mr. [] stated as he did not know this concern he had written the following letter on August 19, 1958:

Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop,
707 W. Wisconsin Avenue,
Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin.

"Dear Mr. []

"We acknowledge receipt of your valued order #A1012 for two (2) GROSS OF OUR New Ball Point combs - The Groom Master.

"Not knowing whether you have ever used the actual comb, I am sending under separate cover, parcel post prepaid, one of our ruby colored combs with our compliments.

"As we are not in a position to carry these accounts we would appreciate your check for the number of combs you desire to purchase. Upon receipt of your order they will be promptly shipped to you prepaid.

"Yours truly,

"President"

Mr. [] informed the following letter dated August 22, 1958, signed [] of the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop had been received:

"Call Combs Co.
400 Sixth Street
Sioux City 1, Iowa

"Gentlemen:

"In reference to your letter of August 19th, covering our order #A1012 for two gross of your new Ball Point combs- The groom Master. We are very sorry but, we do not accept C.O.D. orders, we are sure if you would check us through D & B you will find we pay our bills. We hope you can see your way clear to ship an open account, Thank you .

"Very truly yours,

SCANLON'S RADIO & MUSIC SHOP

/s/

[Redacted Signature]

Mr. [Redacted] he had checked with Mr. [Redacted] of the Sioux City Credit Bureau and through Dunn and Bradstreet, and upon determining the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop had a rating of E-2 had written them the following letter:

[Redacted]
Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop
707 West Wisconsin Avenue
Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin

b6
b7C

"Dear Mr. [Redacted]

"Thank you for your kind letter of August 22nd and we followed your suggestion to check Dunn & Bradstreet and wish to compliment you on the fine E-2 report which it shows.

"Although we have been limiting ourselves to prepaid shipments of our comb from direct mail advertising, we will be pleased to ship to you open account with net 30 days or 2% discount for 10 days.

OM 87-5123

"We are making a slight modification of the individual boxes that the comb is shipped in so that the auxiliary bulb attachment will have a separate space and not be forced against the plastic of the comb during shipment. The Box Company should have them completed in the next 6 or 7 days and we plan to fill your new comb order in the new boxes and ship at that time.

"Thanking you for your valued order I am,

"Yours truly,

President"

Mr. [] advised he had written the following letter to Scanlon's on September 4, 1958:

Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop
707 West Wisconsin Avenue
Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin

"Dear Mr. []

"In compliance with your order #A-1012, we are pleased to report that we have turned over to the Watson Transportation Company two cartons containing two gross of our new ball point combs.

b6
b7c

"These are being forwarded freight pre-paid and I trust that they will arrive in good order.

"Thanking you I am,

"Yours truly,

President"

Mr. [] informed he had prepared an Office Memorandum on September 4, 1958, reflecting the shipment of 200 Groom-Master combs at $1.45 each, total sale price $417.60, to Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop.

1-43

Mr. [] stated on September 4, 1958, he had shipped the 288 combs via Watson Brothers Transportation Company, Inc., and had prepaid the freight charges of $3.93. He exhibited the Memorandum-Short Form covering this shipment and also exhibited the Straight Bill of Lading covering this shipment to Scanlon's Radio and Music, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] informed he had not been paid for this shipment of combs.

Mr. [] advised he would be the proper person to testify as to the dealings with Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop. He stated all of the dealings had been by correspondence.

Mr. [] furnished the above described correspondence and requested same be returned to him which it is no longer needed.

DETAILS:

All investigation reflected in instant report was conducted by SA [REDACTED] unless otherwise indicated.

MI 49-320

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin

On January 20, 1959, the Federal Grand Jury, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, heard facts in this case relative to a conspiracy violation under Section 2384, Title 18, U.S. Code on the part of subjects [redacted]

On February 16, 1959, subjects [redacted] were arraigned before United States District Judge ROBERT E. TERRY and both pleaded not guilty to indictments returned December 3, and December 18, 1958, charging them with violations of Section 2384, Title 18, U. S. Code.

b6
b7C

On February 16, 1959, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] advised that during the arraignment a discussion ensued at which time he mentioned to the court the possibility of additional charges might develop within the next few weeks.

[redacted] stated that Attorney [redacted] representing [redacted] and Attorney [redacted] of Detroit, Michigan, representing [redacted] agreed to leave the trial date open pending further action by the Grand Jury. [redacted] related that the bond of $7,500, as previously set for subject [redacted] was continued and the bond of $1,500, on subject [redacted] previously set by a Detroit Federal Judge was also continued.

b7C

On January 26, February 3, and February 18, 1959, Federal Grand Jury, Milwaukee, heard further witnesses in this case relative to conspiracy on the part of all seven subjects to violate Section 2384, Title 18, U.S. Code and witnesses relative to violation Section 1341, Title 18, U.S. Code (Mail Fraud) on the part of subjects [redacted] with the mail fraud violation being presented by U. S. Postal Inspectors.

Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] advised March 9, 1959, that to date he has not requested the Grand Jury to deliberate or return any indictments, and that on March 13, the Federal Grand Jury will hear further witnesses relative to the conspiracy violation on the part of all seven subjects and that it is his present plan to request the Grand Jury to deliberate and return all indictments on March 13, 1959.

MI 49-320

On January 19, 1959, [redacted] Knickerbocker Hotel, advised that she does not recall checking in a Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] on September 5, 1958, and the photos of all the subjects in this case as made available to her are unfamiliar to her.

On January 19, 1959, [redacted] Knickerbocker Hotel, stated that the names of Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] are completely unfamiliar to her and that the photographs of subjects in this case are not familiar to her.

b6
b7C

On January 19, 1959, [redacted] Knickerbocker Hotel, advised that he does not recall a Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] being at the hotel and that the photographs of all the subjects in this case are unfamiliar.

On January 23, 1959, [redacted] Busboy, Knickerbocker Hotel, advised that photographs of subject [redacted] appear to be that of the [redacted] who stayed at the above hotel although he cannot be sure. He advised that photographs of subject [redacted] appear to be that of a person who visited [redacted] during his stay in September, 1958. He stated that he does not recall a Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] as ever staying at the above hotel.

At Stevens Point, Wisconsin

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOHN T. MC CARRIER.

On January 7, 1959, [redacted] Postmaster, advised that there was no [redacted] family presently residing on Route 3, but that one [redacted] formerly operated a tavern in the town of Hall, Portage County, located on Route 3, Stevens Point, who had a daughter [redacted] presently married to [redacted] and now living at [redacted]

b6
b7C

Mr. [redacted] stated that Mrs. [redacted] had for several years been employed as a [redacted] at Krepps Furniture and Appliance Company, Stevens Point, and to his knowledge had not been living in Milwaukee at any time for at least the past ten years.

MI 49-320

On January 7, 1959, Mrs. [redacted] advised she is [redacted] years old [redacted] resides at [redacted] and has been a continuous resident of the [redacted] area since 1946, after her family had temporarily resided in Milwaukee, during World War II.

She advised her father, [redacted] formerly operated a tavern at Route 3, [redacted] which was her residence address for many years prior to her marriage in May, 1958, to [redacted] Mrs. [redacted] stated that she has been continuously employed by the Kraus firm since April, 1954, just prior to her graduation from high school at [redacted]

b6
b7C

Mrs. [redacted] stated that she had never been employed at Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, and that the name of [redacted] was entirely unfamiliar to her. She further stated that the names of [redacted] and [redacted] were unknown to her, and she stated she had no relatives or acquaintances who might have used these names.

Regarding credit inquiry through the Milwaukee Association of Commerce in the fall of 1955, Mrs. [redacted] advised that in the early fall of 1955, as [redacted] Wisconsin, she opened a charge account at the Boston Store, Milwaukee, for the purpose of ordering advertised items of that store by mail.

At Green Bay, Wisconsin

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] Beemster Electric Company, 133 North Broadway, advised on January 19, 1959, that his company had never done business at any time with Scanlon Radio and Music Company, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that Milwaukee was out of their sales area, and that he had previously made a complete search of his company's records for any record of any sales, particularly of electric blankets, to the Scanlon Company of Milwaukee, and that this search failed to reveal any record of such. He stated that his company had received a letter from a Court of Bankruptcy,

b6
b7C

Milwaukee, a month or so ago, regarding bankrupt proceedings being taken by the Scanlon Company of Milwaukee, but that a search at that time of his records referred to above failed to reveal any sales ever being made to that company in Milwaukee. He stated that the only electric blankets his company ever had for sale, were those of the Knapp Monarch Company, and that his company had only a very few, which turned out to be unsatisfactory. He stated that he believed that the entire inventory of electric blankets at his company amounted to only about a dozen. He stated that a Mr. [redacted] of Milwaukee, was a salesman of Knapp Monarch Company and that he called on his company and that he might have used the Beemster Company name in making a sale to Scanlon Company, but it would have been without knowledge or approval of Beemster Company.

b6

Mr. [redacted] Beemster Company, advised on January 19, 1959, that he had assisted in a search of his company's records, referred to above, for any record of sales to Scanlon's of Milwaukee, but that he could locate no record. He stated that in addition to that none of the names of the subjects or their aliases were familiar to his company in any way.

Mr. [redacted] Knapp Monarch Company, was contacted at the Beemster Company on January 19, 1959, in Green Bay, after the above interviews were concluded, and Mr. [redacted] stated that he just happened to be making a call on the Beemster Company that day. He stated that he recalled of selling about two dozen electric blankets of his company to Mr. [redacted] of Scanlon Radio and Music Company in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, some time early last fall, exact date not recalled, and that he also recalls that those blankets were not paid for. He stated that the electric blankets referred to above might possibly be those that he sold to [redacted] in Milwaukee. He stated that he absolutely did not make the sale to [redacted] in the name of Beemster Company and had no idea how Beemster Company's name might have been used by [redacted]. He stated that all of his records were maintained at his home in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, at [redacted].

b6
b7C

[redacted] He stated that any record of sale and shipment of electric blankets to Scanlon's in Milwaukee would also be kept at his company's office, at Knapp Monarch Company, C/O General Offices, St. Louis 16, Missouri.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORT

February 25, 1959

ROBERT FOSTER PAYNE advised he is self employed as a truck driver and usually operates between Philadelphia and Chicago. During September 1958, PAYNE was in Chicago, Ill., looking for work and stopped by the Truckers' Paradise Gasoline Service Station located at Troop and Cermack Streets. [redacted] (LNU) [redacted] of the Truckers Paradise mentioned to PAYNE that trucking jobs were available to the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisc. When PAYNE said he was interested, [redacted] suggested he contact Scanlon's by telephone. PAYNE telephoned collect on September 15, 1958 and talked to an individual named [redacted] who identified himself as a "boss" at Scanlon's.

b6
b7C

PAYNE furnished the following signed statement to SA JAMES E. CARROLL on February 20, 1959, setting forth in detail, his activity as related to his employment at the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop.

"1922 West Columbia Avenue

"Approximately 9/15/58 I was at Truckers Paradise, a gasoline station located at Troop & Cermack Streets, Chicago, Ill. [redacted] the Truckers Paradise whose last name I do not know, told me a job was available in Milwaukee, Wisc. at a place where two other drivers, Bob Williams and a guy named [redacted] were working. [redacted] gave me a phone number to call at Milwaukee Wisc. A fellow named [redacted] who said he was one of the bosses at Scanlon's Radio and Music, Milwaukee answered the phone and questioned me about my driving experience. He also wanted to know what I would charge. I told him union rates and he said O.K. come on up to Milwaukee right away. I agreed and hopped the South Shore High Speed Line to Milwaukee on 9/15/58. I should state that I possibly made one or two other telephone calls to [redacted] that same day telling him when I planned to arrive in Milwaukee.

b6
b7C

"When I arrived at Milwaukee I again called [redacted] and he came to the station to pick me up. I think he was driving a 1958 Cadillac Convertible, Cream colored, when he picked me up at the station. [redacted] drove me out to the warehouse where I met [redacted] another boss. [redacted] showed me a Yellow Truck which was being loaded at the dock and informed me that I would be driving this piece of equipment to Cleveland, Ohio. About 11:00 pm on 9/15/58 the truck was completely loaded and I departed from Scanlon's Warehouse 8104 W. National, West Allis, Wisconsin. Before I departed, [redacted] gave me the shipping papers in a sealed manila envelope. Both [redacted] agreed before my departure for Cleveland, Ohio, my first destination, that I would receive .09 a mile and expenses. They also told me I would receive a $100.00 payment from the consignee at Cleveland, Ohio.

"While enroute to Cleveland, Ohio I had a break-down with my truck at Freemont, Ohio. Repair bills on file at the International Truck Company in Freemont will show that I stopped for repairs to and from Cleveland, Ohio.

"I made two trips to Cleveland with loads from Scanlon's Radio. On each trip, I delivered the merchandise, which consisted of radio, jewelry and other small appliances to the rear of a store located on Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. I cannot remember the exact address but do recall that a Chrysler automobile Distributor or salesroom was located in the same block on Euclid, if you walk west on Euclid towards 55th Street in Cleveland, Ohio.

"While working for [] at Scanlon's Radio as a driver, I made two trips to Detroit, Mich carrying the same type of merchandise which had been left at Cleveland. On each of these trips, [] would give me the shipping papers in a sealed envelope as well as an address telling me where or to what location I should haul the merchandise. Both of these loads were taken to a warehouse along Grand River near 86th Street in Detroit.

b7C

"I estimate that I handled the aforementioned trips (2 to Cleveland and 2 to Detroit) within a three week period. During this time I believe there were at least 7 other drivers making trips for Scanlon Radio, hauling merchandise out of the West Allis, Wise Warehouse, to places like Detroit, Cleveland or Chicago.

"When the Yellow Truck Transit Company reclaimed their L-200 International I was using, I was without equipment and returned to Chicago, Ill to look for other work.

"As near as I can recall I think the deliveries I made to Cleveland were on 9/17/58 and 9/21/58. The deliveries to Detroit, Mich were made on or about 9/24/58 and 10/2/58. The dates of my departure from Milwaukee for these trips were on 9/15/58; 9/20/58 or 9/21/58; 9/23/58 and 9/29/58.

"I do not know the names of the individuals to whom I delivered the merchandise at Cleveland or Detroit. I will say, however that these individuals apparently knew I was coming, because there was never any question about accepting the load. Matter of fact, they usually said 'why are you so late' or 'where have you been.'

"There was never any contractual agreement between Scanlon's Radio and myself. The money paid to me was on a cash basis and I never had to sign a receipt.

"Outside of [redacted] and Bob Williams I do not know the names of the other drivers who worked for Scanlon's Radio or who were hired by [redacted] one of the bosses at Scanlon's. I wish to add however that [redacted] of Truckers Paradise in Chicago, Ill would probably know the names of all the drivers.

"I Have Read this four 1/2 Page Statment and it is true and Correct to the best of my Knowledge.

In addition to the above, PAYNE furnished a Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop business card which displayed the name [redacted] On the rear of this business card were the inked notations "Hotel - Broadway 6-3948 Room #227; BL 8-8332; Houston Wood, in Charge, Warehouse, 8104 W. National."

PH 87-5691

According to PAYNE these notations were placed on the card by [] (LNU) shortly after PAYNE arrived in Milwaukee, Wisc., on September 15, 1958. PAYNE said [] a [] was in charge of the Scanlon Warehouse at West Allis, Wisc., and appeared to work directly under [] He said [] had been furnished a rented car by [] for his personal use between the warehouse and the hotel where [] resided. PAYNE believed [] native, had managed a Scanlon Warehouse possibly located on Roosevelt Boulevard Chicago, Ill., before transferring to Milwaukee.

b6
b7C

PAYNE believed most of the drivers utilized by [] and [] to move material from the Scanlon Warehouse in Wisconsin could be identified by [] (LNU), [] of Truckers Paradise, Chicago, Ill.

The interviewee was unable to furnish any description of the individual in charge of the store at Cleveland, Ohio, where two loads of Scanlon's merchandise were delivered. Concerning the individual in charge of the Detroit warehouse, PAYNE described him as follows:

Interviews with Creditors of Scanlon's Radio and Music
At Acton, Massachusetts

At approximately 6:15 p.m. on February 26, 1959, Mr. [redacted] Evans International, Incorporated, advised that one Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop is located at 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that this organization was presumably bought by one [redacted] (believed to be an alias) within the past four months. [redacted] related that [redacted] caused to be shipped from various manufacturers or distributors throughout the United States goods amounting to approximately $500,000 to Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop which goods in turn were then stored in unmarked warehouses and thence sold to various companies throughout the United States. [redacted] stated that [redacted] (aka) of course never paid for goods shipped him and eventually went into bankruptcy. [redacted] believes [redacted] to be presently incarcerated after having been located in California.

b6
b7C

[redacted] revealed that his company is the sole importer and distributor for "Royal Druware" in the United States. "Royal Druware" is imported from Holland. [redacted] stated that during September, 1958, he shipped from Acton to Scanlon's $1,500 worth of "Druware" for which he was not paid since Scanlon's went into bankruptcy. He has not been able since September, 1958, to find out what disposition was made of his shipment. He said his shipment to Scanlon's consisted of sauce-pans, oval bakern and oval shallow dishes made of porcelain cast-iron which were blue, green or yellow in color. He said that they were decorated with a tulip and windmill, further bore the notation "made in Holland". He stated that during the past twenty-four hours his representative in New York City, Mr. [redacted] with offices at Evans International Incorporated, 1135 Broadway, New York City, had learned that the C and C Sales Company, exact address unknown, but located in Metropolitan New York had for sale his product "Druware", and when [redacted] questioned C and C Sales as to where they obtained this product they refused to disclose their source.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

2/26/59

Mr. [] Armor Bronze & Silver Company, Inc., Fourth and Water Streets, Taunton, Massachusetts, advised that in August, 1958 his firm received an order for chafing dishes from Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that this order came to his company through one of his sales representatives in Baltimore, Maryland.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] stated that inasmuch as the files of the Armor Bronze & Silver Company, Inc. did not show any prior business with Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, and inasmuch as that company did not have established credit with his concern, he sent a letter to Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop requesting credit references.

Mr. [] stated that by letter, dated August 23, 1958, Mr. [] of Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, advised the Armor Bronze & Silver Company, Inc. that his company had been in business for over twenty years, that he pays his bills and furnished the names of two companies in Milwaukee as references.

It was stated by Mr. [] that when this letter arrived he was on vacation, and that the [] Mr. [] authorized the shipment of the chafing dishes to be forwarded to Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop.

It was stated by Mr. [] that by Invoice #S 6075, dated September 2, 1958, the 42 chafing dishes, previously ordered, were sent to Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that the price of these items was $322.50. Mr. [] stated that this shipment was sent on Armor Bronze & Silver Company, Inc. Bill of Lading #02240, dated September 2, 1958.

b6
b7C

It was stated by Mr. [] that he was unable to collect for this shipment to Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, whereupon, by letter dated October 31, 1958, this uncollected account was turned over to A. B. HARTMAN Company, 143 West 72nd Street, New York City, for collection.

Mr. [] stated that by letter, dated November 12, 1958, the A. B. HARTMAN Company advised him that the law firm of ~~HEWITT~~ and HOWARD, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, was handling this matter for the creditors of Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, and suggested that the matter of collection be turned over to that firm in Milwaukee.

Mr. [] stated that this was done, and that at the present time [] are attempting to collect for his company.

Mr. [] stated that by letter, dated October 23, 1958, Postal Inspector [] Post Office Department, Chicago, Illinois, requested Mr. [] to send to him any original documents and correspondence pertinent to this case.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] stated that he complied with the request of Mr. [] retaining photostatic copies of the pertinent documents at the company's plant.

Mr. [] made available a photostatic copy of each of the following documents:

1. Purchase order from Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Order #A 1229, dated August 15, 1958.
2. Letter from Scanlon's Radio & Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to Arner Bronze & Silver Co., Inc., Taunton, Massachusetts, dated August 23, 1958.
3. Invoice of the Arner Bronze & Silver Co., Inc., Taunton, Massachusetts, Invoice #3 6075, dated September 2, 1958.
4. Bill of Lading from the Arner Bronze & Silver Co., Inc., Taunton, Massachusetts, Number 02240, dated September 2, 1958.

Mr. [] stated that he still has in his possession the original copy of the Bill of Lading from his company, dated September 2, 1958, and bearing the Number 02240. He stated that he prefers to retain the original of this Bill of Lading in accordance with company policy, but will produce it in court if necessary.

24 lamps #622 and shades #974 at
$3.00 each	$72.00
Total	$210.00

Scanlon's purchase order number of this order was A1525 and the shipment consisted of 16 cartons weighing 160 pounds and was shipped on bill of lading #12502 on September 23, 1958. Mr. [REDACTED] advised the above order is all the business Mendelson ever did with Scanlon, and since Scanlon did not pay the bill they turned over all their papers pertaining to the order to Burnham and Silver, Domestic and Foreign Collections, 205 West Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill. Mr. [REDACTED] advised that this concern has the power of attorney to collect this bill and would have all the papers necessary for court. He advised he is unable to tell from his records whether the order was taken by a Mendelson salesman or was telephoned into Mendelson. He advised that Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop was rated E-2 by Dun and Bradstreet, and that is why Mendelson shipped the order on a 30 day open account. He advised E-2 rating in Dun and Bradstreet is credit good up to $50,000.00.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. []
Prizer-Painter Stove Works, Inc., 600 Arlington Street, Reading, Pa., mailing address, Box 198, Reading, Pa., advised his concern received in the mail two postcards, each postmarked at Milwaukee, Wisc., one under date of August 11, 1958, the other under date of August 27, 1958. One was addressed to Prizer-Ware, Reading, Pa., the other to the Prizer-Painter Stove Works, Inc., at Reading, Pa. Each card is from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee. Each states:

b6
b7C

"Please forward any and all literature, or catalogs, and price list of items you have available at a direct price for volume purchases."

Mr. [] is retaining the original postcards which he received. His concern subscribes to the Dun and Bradstreet Credit Service. Upon receipt of the cards, Mr. [] checked the Dun and Bradstreet book in his possession entitled "Reference Book of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc." and ascertained that Scanlon's was rated "E-2" which indicates a high credit rating. Estimated financial strength was between $20,000.00 and $35,000.00. Mr. [] noted this information on the postcards and on the basis of the Dun and Bradstreet rating made the decision to answer their inquiry. He noted Dun and Bradstreet furnishes new reference books four times a year and when supplying the new book, reclaims the old book. As he recalled, he secured the rating from the Dun and Bradstreet book dated May of 1958.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
Interview ReportDATE March 3, 1959

[redacted] Patented Products Corporation, Danville, Ohio, advised that he received an order for fifty (50) Electro Warmth bed warmers, a product manufactured by his company, from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on September 15, 1958. He advised that he had never heard of the company prior to receipt of this order, but that he made no check of its credit except to look it up in the Reference Book published by Dun and Bradstreet. He advised that the issue of Dun and Bradstreet which he used was Book Number 2, Volume 406, published March, 1957.

b6

[redacted] advised that since the company had a satisfactory rating according to Dun and Bradstreet, he did not hesitate to fill the order which was shipped on September 18, 1958. He advised that the order was received from Scanlon's on their purchase order A 1851, dated September 15, 1958, and was shipped on Patented Products Corporation order and invoice number 7798, dated September 17, 1958. He advised that the whole-sale price of the bed warmers was $10.65 per unit and the total amount of the order was $532.50.

[redacted] advised that he subsequently received another order for twenty-five (25) additional bed warmers by Scanlon's order number B 1150, dated September 29, 1958. He advised that since he had heard nothing from Scanlon's since the previous shipment, the second order was not filled.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate March 5, 1959

Mr. [] The Frank F. Taylor Company, 2801 Highland Avenue, Norwood, Ohio, advised that his company originally received a postal card from the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin, inquiring about literature, catalogs and prices of the list of items they have available. Mr. [] stated that a catalog would have been furnished based on the above request. He advised that he had never heard of the company prior to receipt of this request. He also stated that he would have checked the latest reference book of Dun and Bradstreet which would have been the May, 1958, reference book which they do not have available at this time. He recalls that the above company had a high rating so that when the first order, dated August 30, 1958, was received there was no hesitation to fill this order. He advised that this order was received from Scanlon's on their purchase order A3867, dated August 30, 1958, and was shipped on The Frank F. Taylor Company order and invoice number 13238, dated September 12, 1958. The above order called for 34 assorted types of strollers. Mr. [] made available illustrated brochures which further described the above merchandise.

b6
b7C

He further advised that he subsequently received another order for 24 strollers by Scanlon's order number B1138, dated September 27, 1958. He advised that since the second order arrived within thirty days of the first order there was no reason to hold the second order up.

Re Boston airtel to Milwaukee, 2/26/59.

The following investigation was conducted as a result of information furnished by [redacted] Evans International, Inc., Acton, Mass., to the Boston Office, to the effect that during September, 1958, his company shipped from Acton, Mass., to Scanlon Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wis., $1,800 worth of "druware" for which he was not paid since Scanlon went into bankruptcy. [redacted] stated that [redacted] his NYC representative, 1133 Broadway, NYC, had learned that the C & C Sales Co., located somewhere in the metropolitan area of NY, had for sale his product "druware" and when [redacted] questioned C & C Sales Co., as to where they obtained this product, they refused to disclose their source.

On 3/2/59, [redacted] telephonically contacted the NYO and advised that the information furnished by [redacted] was given prematurely. He explained that the Evans Company does not sell its merchandise to discount houses and that [redacted] of H. Berlin Company, Brooklyn, NY, one of his wholesalers, advised that S. Klein and Sons, NYC, was running a sale on "druware." He said that [redacted] inquired at Kleins as to where the merchandise came from and a sales clerk told [redacted] that it came from C & C Sales Co., NYC.

b7C

[redacted] stated that at this point he notified [redacted] in Acton, Mass., but after further inquiry at Kleins in NYC, it was determined that the druware shipment was among other shipments, all of which were located on the receiving platform of Kleins and, at the time of inquiry, the sales clerk was incorrect by stating that all the merchandise on the platform was from C & C Sales Company.

[redacted] said that actually only one shipment on the platform was from C and C Sales Company and that the shipment of druware was from H. Schultz and Company, another of his wholesalers. [redacted] said that after contacting [redacted] it was determined that he was selling druware to Kleins without the Evans Company's knowledge.

[redacted] stated that he personally visited Kleins and checked the numbers on the merchandise against the numbers of the merchandise shipped to Scanlon Radio and Music Shop and they were not the same. He further advised that to the best of his knowledge, the Scanlon Company was not involved in this transaction in any way.

Enclosed herewith are thermofax copies of the 77 invoices which [redacted] Mohawk Lumber and Supply Co., received from E & A Sales Co., when he purchased merchandise from them about 9/17/58. This merchandise was paid for by Mohawk Lumber and Supply Co. check #18164, dated 10/8/58, in the amount of $14,862.66. [redacted] stated he bought this merchandise at about 10% below his usual cost. Examination of invoices reflects that wholesale cost was $21,349.53, therefore, [redacted] paid only 69.6% of wholesale cost, or a discount of approximately 30%.

[redacted] invoices include one reflecting supplier was Ack-Ack, Inc., E. Detroit. This firm advised they have never sold to E & A, but they located invoice dated 8/26/58, for sale of toys to Scanlon's. Comparison of their invoice to Scanlon and E & A invoice to Mohawk revealed that the quantity shipped, description of merchandise, price and discount on the two invoices are identical, therefore, E & A obtained this merchandise from Scanlon's.

It is suggested that Milwaukee search the records of the Receiver to determine if other firms listed on E & A invoices sent to Mohawk Lumber and Supply Co. sold identical merchandise to Scanlon's.

Date: 2/16/59

Dictated: 2/9/59

FROM : SA JOSEPH E. ZIEL

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] aka., et al

On January 19, 1959, SAs JOSEPH E. ZIEL and [REDACTED] interviewed Mr. EUGENE GILLIS at the offices of the Empire Amerex Products Corporation, 3636 North California, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. GILLIS advised that he often makes trips to Cleveland and does not necessarily charge them to the company, particularly if they are one day journeys. He produced his expense account records which failed to show that he had made a trip to Cleveland or Detroit on or relatively close to September 17 or 18, 1958.

In regard to his being contacted by his brother-in-law, JACK SHUBOW, to make contacts to sell distressed merchandise, he furnished the following statement which he refused to sign, although he read it and agreed that it was true and correct:

"Chicago Illinois
January 19, 1959

"I, Eugene Philip Gillis, do freely and voluntarily make the following statement to Joseph E. Ziel and [REDACTED] who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the F.B.I. No promises or threats of violence have been made to me. I have been told I may consult an attorney. I realize that this statement may be used in a court of law against me. I was born November 2, 1915 in Spokane, Washington. I graduated from high school. To the best of my recollection, around the end of September, 1958, Jack Shubow contacted me either in person or telephonically. At this contact, Jack Shubow advised me that he had been contacted and had access to a considerable amount of distressed merchandise. His purpose in contacting me was to locate buyers for this merchandise. He did not, at this time, tell me the source of this merchandise. Sometime prior

b6
b7C

JEZ/mab

to 10/9/58, I met with Jack Shubow & Irving Lichterman in either Detroit or Cleveland. At that time Lichterman was told about this distressed merchandise and agreed to purchase it for E & A Sales. This merchandise, to my knowledge consisted of toys, lawn furniture, and kitchen wares. I still did not know, at this time, the source of this merchandise. I later learned that this merchandise was from Scanlon's Warehouse in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Around October 5, 1958 I received either three or four checks each amounting to $1,500.00 from E and A Sales, which checks I, in turn, forwarded to Jack Shubow in Detroit. I did not indorse any of these checks. These checks were made out by E & A Sales to Lichterman and Wigodski, signed by them and also indorsed by them. Just prior to receiving these checks, I learned that [redacted] were the sellers of this merchandise from Scanlon's Warehouse. I had no knowledge of the quantity or the value or the number of shipments made from Scanlon's Warehouse. I do know that some of this merchandise went to E and A Sales in Cleveland, Ohio, Link Sales in Washington D.C., Universal Associates in Charleston, W. Va., and Better Home Products in Syracuse, N.Y.

On February 4, 1959, SAs JOSEPH E. ZIEL and [REDACTED] of the Chicago Office obtained the following signed statement from Mr. EUGENE PHILLIP GILLIS, which he advised had been prepared for him by his attorney and was completely typed up and ready to be signed prior to the interview. This signed statement furnished by Mr. GILLIS is as follows:

"My name is Eugene Philip Gillis, and I make the following statement to Joseph E. Ziel and [REDACTED] who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the FBI, freely and voluntarily, without promise of a reward and without coercion or threats of violence having been made. I have consulted my attorney and he has advised me that I should make this statement and that I should cooperate fully with all lawful authorities. He has informed me and I am aware that any statement made by me may be used in a court of law against me.

"I was born November 2, 1915, in Spokane, Washington. In 1919 my family and I moved to Detroit, Michigan, where I lived until approximately January of 1958. I am married and have three children. I live at 970 Bluff Road, Glencoe, Illinois, in a house which I lease from its owner. My wife's name is [REDACTED] whose maiden name was [REDACTED]. We have been married for [REDACTED] years.

"Most of my business career has been in selling. Specifically from about 1940 to 1941 I was a salesman for Midwest Fur Company, Detroit, Michigan, who are fur coat jobbers. For them I covered the midwest area and sold to department stores, furriers and specialty stores. From about 1941 to 1949 I performed the same type of work for [REDACTED] of Detroit, Michigan and/or [REDACTED] who are manufacturing furriers of New York City. In this latter job I traveled throughout the midwest in a panel truck and usually had with me between $100,000.00 and $200,000.00 worth of fur coats. When I left this job I worked for about two years selling clothing at wholesale under the name of National Wholesale Clothing Company in Detroit. I had a partner named [redacted]. The business did not go well and eventually we settled with our creditors and I turned the business over to my partner.

b6
b7C

"From about 1951 to 1952 I was general manager for the House of Television in Detroit, whose business was retailing television sets. In about 1953 I bought from its former owners the Diamond Television Service and also started a new business called Diamond Parts Warranty. This had to do with selling a service contract to television set owners. I continued in this business until late 1953 or early 1954 when the business, proving unsuccessful, I liquidated it and stopped further business activity in this line. For a period after that I sold housewares on the road as an independent salesman (periodically when I was younger and at some times later I had been in this sort of business). Some time in 1943, [redacted] who is a [redacted]

b6

[redacted] of mine, got in touch with me regarding his desire to go into the business of selling cutlery, that is, carving sets and steak sets. He proposed to find a supplier of this merchandise and to design his own package and sell the merchandise to jobbers, distributors and retailers. He suggested that he and I should jointly go into this business and that he would handle the office and financing end while I would take on the selling job. I agreed to do so and the business was started as Premium Enterprises, having its location on Ashland Avenue in Chicago. At this time most of the merchandise was purchased from Crown Crest Cutlery Corporation in New York. I went out on the road selling this merchandise to jobbers, distributors and retailers.

"The business was fairly successful and Premium Enterprises became Empire Products Company which was subsequently incorporated as Empire Amerex Products Corporation, with whom I am presently employed as Vice-President in charge of Sales. During this time our lines of merchandise were constantly expanded and we did handle and do presently handle many lines of general housewares. In about our second year of business we had a gross volume of approximately Four Million Dollars.

"During all of this time I have been frequently on the road selling directly, training other salesmen, appointing sales representatives, servicing accounts, following up collections, and in general doing about what sales managers usually do. I have in that time travelled in at least 30 states, although about 80% of our volume is concentrated in the middle west and in the east. As I recall, I made my first sale to E and A Sales Company, of Cleveland, in about 1955. One of the parties in that concern is Irving Lichterman, who I had known in Detroit for 15 or 20 years when he was an independent salesman in the housewares line. Since my first sale to E and A, I believe my company has done about $200,000.00 worth of business with them. They are jobbers and district operators in the housewares field. Their business has been good and their credit rating, as far as we are concerned, excellent, and at times we have carried them on open account up to about $18,000.00. It is true that in, I believe, 1956, they were either bankrupt or insolvent, but subsequently they paid my company whatever they owed us. During the last couple of years I have visited them in Cleveland in connection with our business, probably 25 or 30 times. I would call them quite a good account. Some time toward the end of August or early September, 1958, Jack Shubow, of Detroit, Michigan, who is another brother-in-law of mine, got in touch with me and told me that he had been called by an agent acting for an owner of a considerable housewares inventory who needed to convert his inventory into cash and that Jack had been offered a commission if he could move the merchandise in the near future. Jack was then operating under the company name of Rich-Mor Sales Company in Detroit, and had been for some years. His business was as a jobber of general housewares and I knew that he had been connected with this field for quite a long time. I asked him who was disposing of this merchandise and he said he did not know and that he had been approached by an agent for the owner who also apparently was working on a commission. I asked him who the agent was and he said that he would tell me later. I had the feeling that at that time he did not want me to know for fear that I might talk about it in the trade and that he would thereby lose his contact. In any event, he asked me if I could make contacts among our accounts and see if some of our accounts would be interested in buying any of this merchandise. I told him I would be glad to do so whenever I had the opportunity and that I would let him know anything I discovered.

"For some time after that I was too busy to do anything about this matter and had not taken any action when Jack called me again to discuss the matter. He told me that the man he was dealing with was [redacted] I had met [redacted] I believe, some time in 1957 in Detroit. A local salesman of ours, Sid Fein, had sold some of our merchandise to [redacted] company which was then known as Border Novelty Company, and on a trip to Detroit I visited Border and met [redacted] and his partner, a man whose name I recall only as [redacted]. From this time on for a period of time, various sales were made to Border Novelty, which was for a while a fairly good account. During this time I saw [redacted] probably about once a month in connection with general servicing of his account and frequently in connection with collecting for our invoices. We frequently do this with accounts which do not have well established credit. I believe that [redacted] company went bankrupt eventually, owing my company around $1800.00. Some time before that however, he had done us a favor by storing a considerable amount of merchandise for us which we had taken back from another customer in the Detroit area.

"At the time that Jack told me that [redacted] was the agent, he also again reiterated that he would appreciate my finding buyers for the merchandise and he said that he would "take care of me" if I would do so. I understood this to mean that in some way he would give me a portion of whatever commissions he earned, although I was primarily motivated by a desire to help my brother-in-law. Jack also mentioned that he had told [redacted] I would be trying to find some

b7C

b6
b7C

buyers. A few days later [] was in Chicago and called me at my office and made an appointment to come down and visit me, which he did. He too asked me to do whatever I could to find buyers, and made vague remarks about my being rewarded for my efforts. During this and subsequent weeks he or [] called me probably 8 or 10 times regarding the same matter. Some time around the middle of September I got in touch with Lichterman at E and A Sales and told him that Jack was trying to sell some general housewares merchandise apparently at a pretty good price and that he, Lichterman, might be able to make an advantageous deal. He expressed interest and I told him to contact Jack directly because I had no particular details about the nature of the deal. Lichterman had known Jack in Detroit for a good many years. Some time later, probably within a week, Jack told me that he had talked to Lichterman and had made a deal to sell him some quantity of merchandise at approximately 50% of cost. As I recall, they had discussed staggering the price of various items, some which were in season to be sold at around 80% of cost and some which were out of season to be sold for as little as 40% of cost. I believe Jack told me at this time that they had subsequently agreed on an across-the-board price of 50%. Shortly thereafter [] called me and told me that he was worried about this deal because he did not know Lichterman and did not care to ship without getting paid on delivery, and Lichterman did not care to pay for merchandise until he had it and had had a chance to inspect its quality. I told [] that I had known Lichterman for some time and had dealt with him in our business and I felt that his promise to pay could be relied on. [] still seemed to be somewhat disturbed and he asked me to do anything I could to get this deal squared away.

b6
b7Cb6
b7C

"A few days later I had occasion to go to Cleveland again and I talked to Jack and mentioned that I was going to make the trip. He told me that Lichterman personally owed him some money which he would like to get, and suggested that he would meet me in Cleveland and we could both talk to Lichterman. We did this and met at E and A's office and discussed several things, including this purchase from [redacted] (Jack in the meanwhile did collect his money). I recall that Lichterman at this time told me that if he made a profit on this deal he would see that I "was taken care of". I told him not to bother and that I was concerned only with both he and Jack making a few dollars on the deal.

"It was some time after this, in early October on the occasion of another visit to Cleveland that Lichterman gave me four checks which I understood were in payment of merchandise purchased in this deal. These checks were each in the amount of $1500.00 and were post-dated. They were E and A checks made out to Lichterman and his partner, Wigodski, which were signed by them and also endorsed by them. They told me to tell Jack to deposit these checks at the rate of $3,000.00 per week, the purpose of which I assumed was to assure them of proper delivery of merchandise.

"I had intended to go to Detroit shortly after that and deliver the checks to Jack, but when I got back to Chicago I found that my schedule would not allow it as I had to travel to the West Coast shortly and had no time to take away from my office. As a result, I mailed the checks to Jack and called him and told him about the instructions to deposit them at the rate of $3,000.00 per week.

"Starting on September 29th in 1958 there was a hardware show in New York City which I attended for the purpose of exhibiting my company's merchandise there. During the show I talked to [redacted] of Link Sales Company, Washington, D.C., and [redacted] of Universal Associates, Charleston, West Virginia. I had been selling to both of them for some years in reasonable quantities and considered their credit good. I mentioned to them also that Jack had this merchandise deal and told them to contact Jack directly if they were interested. Both of them had known Jack for some years. Jack told me later that they had in fact come to Detroit and bought some merchandise from him, although I do not believe I ever knew how much they purchased.

"It was some time before this that Jack told me that the merchandise was being sold by Scanlon's, a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, firm. The name meant nothing to me. I do not believe that I ever was told how much merchandise was involved or how many sales were made or to how many people. Outside of the sales I have referred to above, I personally did not know of any others, although I heard from Jack that he had sold some merchandise to Better Home Products in Syracuse, New York.

"During the time referred to above, [redacted] visited me at my office in Chicago on the occasion I have mentioned and on one later occasion where he was accompanied by [redacted]. I knew [redacted] in Detroit and as a matter of fact he had [redacted] a salesman for about [redacted] when I was in the television business. I saw [redacted] on one other occasion which I believe was some time in September. He was in Chicago and called me and asked if he could see me at the office over the week-end. I told him I would not be working but that he could come out to the house if he wanted to, and this he agreed to do. Among other things I had in mind that he had told me of having an interest in a Detroit financing company and I had hopes that I could induce his company to make a loan to our business which needed cash at the time. He did come out and we got nowhere with the loan discussion since apparently all he was willing to talk about was pushing the balance of this merchandise referred to. I told him at that time that I would do whatever I could and he told me that if I could help Jack in making sales, he would send me a nice Hi Fi set. I again told him at that time it was not necessary and that if I could help Jack I would.

b6
b7C

"When I sent the four checks above referred to to Jack, I assumed that he would deduct the 5% commission he was entitled to and forward the balance to [redacted]

b6
b7C

Some time later he called me and told me that the first $3,000.00 had gone through all right but that Lichterman had stopped payment on the second $3,000.00 and had told Jack that he never got the merchandise for it. I felt at this time that this whole thing was getting too confused for me to waste any further time on and therefore abandoned any efforts to make further sales.

"I never got any money or any other compensation from any of the parties concerned. I have been asked whether this sale at 50% of cost was not unusual and I can state categorically that it is fairly common in this field. I have known of many companies where a merchandiser, being in need of cash, will sell appreciable quantities at much less than his cost, particularly in the case of seasonable merchandise when the season is a good many months ahead. My own company, in fact, has made such sales more than once when business policy dictated that the cash was a more important consideration than getting our money out of the merchandise.

"The Special Agents above referred to and other agents have discussed this matter with me, and Special Agents Ziel and Baker had asked me to make a statement including the above facts. When they advised me that I could consult a lawyer, I did so, and my attorney told me that he could not advise me at all until he had a more thorough understanding of what this matter was all about. He told me that he wanted to talk to Jack Shubow and so I arranged to meet with Jack in Detroit on the evening of Thursday, January 22, 1959. My attorney and I met with Jack and his lawyer at his lawyer's office and discussed this matter for some time. As a result of that discussion I recalled some things which I had not recalled before and both Jack's attorney and mine asked me a good many questions. My attorney also asked Jack many questions, apparently in an attempt to understand exactly what this matter was all about. My attorney informed Jack's lawyer that he was going to advise me to make this statement and that he was advising me to cooperate fully with all legal authorities. No protest was made to this by Jack or his attorney. We left Detroit that night at around 12:30 A.M. and came back to Chicago. I again met with my attorney on the morning of Monday, January 26, 1959, and discussed the entire matter from its inception and he made notes of all of the pertinent facts for the purpose of clarifying the facts so that I could make a complete statement.

"Although I have not independently verified any of the above dates, I believe that the above statement is complete and accurate. I am ready now or at any time hereafter to answer any other questions about this matter for any lawful authority.

"I have affixed my signature to this Statement on February 4, 1959, at my office at 3636 No. Talman, Chicago, Illinois.

On January 22, 1959, SAs MARLIN H. MOORE and JOSEPH E. ZIEL contacted [redacted] of the Truckers' Paradise at 1234 West Cermak Road, Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] advised that he recalls receiving a telephone call from someone in Milwaukee to have some merchandise transported out of Scanlon's Warehouse in Milwaukee. The party calling talked to [redacted] who is one of the truckers who hangs out at the Truckers' Paradise. [redacted] stated that he had received a phone number in Milwaukee to have [redacted] call and he related this information on to [redacted]. He does know that [redacted] did some hauling for this Milwaukee outfit and that [redacted] got BOB PAYNE, [redacted] and [redacted] to help him in this operation. He also recalled seeing that [redacted] truck had the name Scanlon's Warehouse, Milwaukee, Wisconsin on the cab door. Other than that [redacted] was unable to furnish any information whatsoever concerning Scanlon's operation in Milwaukee claiming that he did not know [redacted].

On February 11, 1959, [redacted] was located at Andrew G. Nelson, Incorporated, 3659 South Normal, Chicago, where he was reinterviewed by SA JOSEPH E. ZIEL. He advised he is now residing at [redacted] Chicago. He stated that [redacted] no longer is employed at Andrew G. Nelson and that he had heard that [redacted] is on a hauling trip to New York. He claims he hasn't seen [redacted] in months and doesn't even know how to contact either [redacted] BOB PAYNE, [redacted]. [redacted] furnished no additional pertinent information. He did advise, however, that [redacted] is on his trailer and this trailer is registered to [redacted] formerly of the outskirts of Meridianville, Alabama, but since moved to unknown address. [redacted] produced the registration reflecting this and stated that his reason for registering this trailer to [redacted] was because the truck was to be collateral for money he borrowed from [redacted]. Registration reflects this trailer previously in 1957 bore [redacted].

Numerous attempts, both personally and telephonically, have been made to contact [redacted] at their homes. Messages and personal notes have been left with the families of these men to contact the FBI in Chicago upon their return. The families claim they have been told by these drivers that they have called; however, such calls are never received. [redacted] did return a call on February 17, 1959 and left a phone number where he could be reached, but less than 15 minutes later SA ZIEL called this number and [redacted] advised he had already left on a hauling job to Boston, Massachusetts.

On January 28, 1959, SA JOSEPH E. ZIEL determined that 1958 Illinois license plate number ST79070 was registered to the Waarick Cartage Company, 5331 South Keating Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

On January 28, 1959, SA ZIEL contacted Mr. [] of the Waarick Cartage Service, who advised that 1958 license number ST79070 was assigned to trailer number 130, which is described as dark green in color with a silver top and an 8 inch red horizontal stripe running half way between the top and the floor of the trailer around the entire trailer. This trailer is practically unusable and is in an advanced stage of deterioration. He advised that the license plates for his trailers were changed on January 9, 1959, and that to the best of his recollection of the 12 trailers one or two of them were missing 1958 plates. However, he was unable to state which of the 12 trailers were missing the 1958 plates.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] advised that his truck could not possibly have been in Milwaukee, inasmuch as he is not allowed to haul in interstate commerce and, furthermore, he has never heard of [] or Scanlon's Warehouse.

b6
b7C

Mr. [] produced the records of his company which reflect that trailer number 130 (with 1958 license number ST79070) was taken loaded to the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad yard on October 2, 1958, and left there to be unloaded. The next record of trailer number 130 was that it was taken loaded on October 22, 1958, to the Illinois Central Railroad Yard in Chicago to be unloaded. The Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad yard is located at 2905 South Ridgeland Avenue in Berwyn, Illinois, and is less than two miles almost directly south of the Wyn Oak Appliance Store. Neither the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad Yard nor the Waarick Cartage Company yard is fenced in and Mr. [] opined that the plates of this trailer could have been stolen at either the Chicago Burlington and Quincy yard or in his own yard. Mr. [] advised that if it were not for the exceedingly poor condition of this trailer, he could say that it would be possible for someone to use the trailer on a weekend without his knowledge and return it early Monday morning before he came to work; however, he pointed out that the poor condition of this trailer precludes this possibility. He does not have any report showing that license number ST 79070 had been reported missing by any of the drivers.

Five Give Up On Fraud Case

Five men surrendered and two other persons were being sought Tuesday night after the federal grand jury here had voted new indictments in the Scanlon discount house fraud case.

Two of the men, both previously indicted in the case, gave themselves up here by agreement between their attorneys and the U.S. attorney's office.

They are James Hurley Bishop, 32, Detroit, and Frank Verville, 31, Chicago. Federal Judge Robert E. Tehan continued their bail and impounded the new indictments until all seven accused are in custody.

PLEAD INNOCENT

Bishop was charged earlier with interstate transportation of merchandise obtained by fraud and Verville is accused of collaborating with him. Both have pleaded innocent. Bishop is free on $7,500 bail and Verville on $1,500 bond.

The earlier indictment grew out of government charges that $470,000 in merchandise had disappeared in a plot involving Bishop's purchase of Scanlon's at 707 W. Wisconsin Av. The government contends the purchase was a front to buy the merchandise on credit, then ship it to warehouses in other states without paying for it.

NAB 2 IN CLEVELAND

As the result of the new indictments, two men were arrested Tuesday in Cleveland and released on $5,000 bail. They are Irving Isadore Litcherman and Daniel Edward Wigdoski. They operate the E. & A. Sales Co., wholesalers, there.

DETAILS:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate February 19, 1959

On January 28, 1959, Mrs. [] of Siegmund Werner Company, 225 Belleville Avenue, Bloomfield, New Jersey, was contacted relative to business dealings with Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b6
b7C

Mrs. [] advised that the extent of dealings and correspondence with Scanlon's has consisted of two orders for golf bags. One order was shipped from the Bloomfield, N.J. Office and the other from the Chicago, Illinois Office.

Mrs. [] stated that when the first order was received, the credit of Scanlon's was obtained from the July, 1958, Dun and Bradstreet rating book. Siegmund Werner Company has a contract with Dun and Bradstreet wherein they receive two rating books per year and also full credit report when necessary. The rating of Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop was checked on September 22, 1958; the rating was "E2", which is $20,000 to $35,000 high credit. No further check was made or necessary, inasmuch as the order to be filled was for $150. The credit was approved by Mrs. []

Mrs. [] advised that salesman [] of the Chicago Office of Siegmund Werner Company has received credit for the orders received from Scanlon's because the orders are in his area. It is not known whether Siegmund Werner's salesman contacted Scanlon's and actually obtained the order from them or whether Scanlon's ordered direct from the company without prior contact with a salesman.

b6
b7C

Mrs. [] advised that Siegmund Werner Company received notice of the bankruptcy proceedings from the Receiver, Mr. [] on November 6, 1958, and at that time sent copies of the forms concerning dealings with Scanlon's to Mr. []

Mrs. [] advised that the two orders consisted of the following:

1. From Bloomfield - September 15, 1958 - 24 golf bags (Scanlon's order number B1957, Siegmund Werner

2. From Chicago - 36 golf bags, Scanlon's order number 3493, Siegmund Werner Company order number 18103. Invoice and bill of lading number CH 34084, September 6, 1958, shipped from Chicago.

On February 11, 1959, Mrs. [] furnished the following documents:

b6
b7C

1. purchase order number B1957 (Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop) (credit approval noted on front of purchase order)

2. Invoice number B78539 (Siegmund Werner Company)

3. Bill of lading number B78539 (Siegmund Werner Company) (It is to be noted that the invoice and bill of lading are on the same form, which is multicopy).

4. Invoice number CH 34084 (Siegmund Werner Company - Chicago Office).

5. Copy of bill of lading number CH 34084 (Siegmund Werner Company).

Mrs. [] further advised that Scanlon's order number 3493 and Siegmund Werner Company bill of lading number 18103 may be obtained by contacting the Chicago Office of Siegmund Werner Company at 1319 South Michigan, Chicago, Illinois.

b6
b7C

Mrs. [] advised that in the event a subpoena is issued, it should be issued to [], salesman, care of Siegmund Werner Co., 1319 South Michigan, Chicago, Illinois.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate March 13, 1959

Mrs. [] Hoboken Wrought Iron Andiron Company, 1328 Grand Street, Hoboken, New Jersey, was contacted relative to business dealings with Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b6
b7C

Mrs. [] advised that the first contact with Scanlon's consisted of a postcard from Scanlon's in early August, 1958, requesting literature, catalogues, and price lists of items available for volume purchases.

On August 11, 1958, Mrs. [] sent a letter to Scanlon's enclosing a catalogue and a price list as requested. This was followed by a purchase order from Scanlon's, Number A3072, dated August 21, 1958, requesting four complete sets of polished brass number 118.

Mrs. [] advised that upon receipt of the order a letter dated August 25, 1958 was sent to Scanlon's, thanking them for the order and requesting a few credit references.

By letter dated August 28, 1958, Scanlon's advised that they were not accustomed to giving credit references as their well-established Dun and Bradstreet rating is usually enough information, but if still more information than Dun and Bradstreet can provide was needed, they would comply.

b6
b7C

Mrs. [] advised that she then obtained a Dun and Bradstreet rating on Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop through her bank, Hudson Trust Company, Union City, New Jersey. The Dun and Bradstreet rating was $20,000.00 to $35,000.00 high and on this basis, she went ahead with the order.

The order was shipped to Scanlon's on September 19, 1958 via National Carloading as evidenced by copy of bill of lading and shipping order number 2543 dated September 19, 1958.

Mrs. [] advised that two letters were sent to Scanlon's requesting payment, one dated October 22, 1958, and the other dated October 31, 1958, both unanswered.

[redacted]
[redacted] advised that he received an order from the Scanlon Music Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, calling for custom made lamps amounting to $375.00. He said that he had received orders from the Scanlon Music Company about five or six years ago, and had never had trouble getting paid by Scanlon. He acted on the basis of past experience, he shipped this order and thereafter received a warning notice from Dun and Bradstreet concerning the Scanlon Company. He said no effort has been made by Scanlon to pay for this merchandise.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that he has sent the documents pertaining to this purchase to his attorneys, but has been unable to locate them. He said that in the event he locates these documents he will notify the FBI.

[redacted] Frigid, Incorporated, 128 32nd Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised that his company received two purchase orders from Scanlon Radio and Music Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on August 21 and September 24, 1958. These orders called for 22 cartons of portable fans, and the total price was $704.00.

b7C

[redacted] stated that he was not at work on the day the order was received, but stated that one of the employees checked the Dun and Bradstreet rating of Scanlon, and found the credit rating to be good. He said that on the basis of the Dun and Bradstreet rating, the merchandise was shipped, and Scanlon has made no effort to pay for this merchandise.

[redacted] made available Photostats of the documents, stating that copies were also forwarded to the referee in bankruptcy by his attorney.

Miss [redacted] Trimline Tackle Company, 160 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, advised that that company received a letter signed by [redacted] on stationery of the Scanlon Music Company, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She said a purchase order, dated August 30, 1958, was enclosed with this letter, calling for four dozen fishing outfits, amounting to $325.55. She said the order was shipped from Bristol, Rhode Island, in September, 1958, after determining from Dan and Bradstreet that the credit rating for the Scanlon Music Company was good. Miss [redacted] stated that by the time they learned of the change in ownership of the Scanlon Music Company, it was too late to cancel the order, and this order was never paid for.

[redacted] BALANCED FOODS INCORPORATED, 700 Broadway, New York, New York, advised from records that his company received a purchase order from the SCANLON HAUDIO AND MUSIC SHOP, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, calling for the shipment of 24 food juicers, 24 liquifiers, and 24 salad maker attachments. He said that since they had never dealt with the SCANLON COMPANY before, he reduced the order to 24 food juicers, 12 liquifiers, and 12 salad maker attachments. He said this merchandise was shipped September 30, 1958, and the total amount of the shipment was $1,000.

b7C

[redacted] stated that the reason for reducing the number of liquifiers and salad maker attachments was because he was not completely satisfied with SCANLON's credit rating with Dun and Bradstreet. He said the above mentioned order was originally sent through their representative [redacted] of the MARTIN COMPANY, 3355 West Peterson Avenue, Chicago 45, Illinois. [redacted] said that [redacted] gave the final credit okay on this order.

DETAILS:

AT SYRACUSE, NEW YORK

AL 49-258

HARRY MARKIN, Proprietor, Better Home Products, Onondaga Street, Syracuse, New York, on February 16, 1959, was advised that his attorney, [redacted] Seitz Building, Syracuse, New York, on same date had authorized MARKIN to furnish any Better Home Products records in connection with the purchases from JACK SHUBOW of Detroit in connection with the bankrupt stock purchases. MARKIN advised that he would locate the records and advise the interviewing agent when they would be available for examination.

b6
b7C

On March 2 and 6, 1959, MARKIN advised he had not yet been able to locate all of the pertinent records.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate March 24, 1959

On March 9, 1959, MARKIN made available his freight invoices, cancelled checks and check stubs and merchandise invoices relative to transactions with JACK SHUBOW, Detroit, Michigan.

MARKIN advised relative to the checks furnished SHUBOW by him at Detroit in October, 1958, that he had furnished between $600 and $700 in cash and a Better Home Products Company check for approximately $1,300 relative to the initial $2,000 payment on the purchases. He stated that to the best of his recollection he purchased approximately $9,000 worth of merchandise which on a 60% of invoice purchase cost was contracted for an amount between $5,300 and $5,400. He stated he made no record of these transactions but recollected that he subsequently stopped payment on the second and third checks furnished SHUBOW which had been post-dated after the FBI contacted him at Syracuse, New York and advised him relative to the alleged concealment in bankruptcy. MARKIN stated after examination of records that Check No. 3507 dated October 8, 1958, payable to cash in the amount of $1,322.71 was the check furnished SHUBOW by him at Detroit in October, 1958. This check indicated that it was deposited through the Michigan Bank on October 10, 1958. MARKIN identified a debit slip of the Merchants National Bank and Trust Company indicating that three checks were returned for insufficient funds relative to the Better Home Products account on October 21, 1958. The three checks involved were in the amounts of $150.00, $113.49 and $2,000. MARKIN advised that the $2,000 check was the check identified at Detroit by Accountant [] as the second half of the $4,000 payment known to []. MARKIN advised that a third check for the approximate $1,365.82 balance on the $8,943.02 purchase value which would total 60% or $5,365.82 had apparently never been processed by SHUBOW after the investigation commenced and, therefore, Accountant [] had not been aware of its existence.

b7C

MARKIN maintained that the only purchases by him from SHUBOW in connection with the instant estate and received noted Beverly Company was the invoice previously furnished him by SHUBOW and turned over to the FBI in connection with the merchandise valued at $8,943.02. MARKIN maintained that this merchandise was delivered by Riss and Company in October, 1958, and no additional shipments were received and he was not acquainted with [] or any Negro truck driver who was alleged to have forwarded a third shipment of merchandise. MARKIN stated relative to the discrepancy in the quantity of cartons mentioned on the Riss and Company invoices as compared to the quantity of cartons specified on the handwritten Beverly Company invoice that his only explanation was that the merchandise when actually delivered to him involved a greater number of cartons than described on the invoice because the materials were not packed and forwarded as originally indicated on the invoice when it was written by JACK SHUBOW. MARKIN advised that he could not specifically recall all items in which there were carton differences; however, he did recall relative to item 2 on the invoice in the amount of $133.20 pertaining to 72 soldiers lamps, alleged to be packed in 6 cartons, that the lamps had actually been delivered in their individual cartons which would account for a difference of 66 items in connection with this one commodity. He advised that he also recalled relative to the alleged 2 cartons of sport shirts totaling $172.50 that the 69 shirts were actually packed three to a cardboard carton and each group of four cartons was tied together with a string which resulted in approximately six packages. He also observed that since the individual

b6
b7C

AL 49-258

cartons were countable even though tied together four in a group, this may have resulted in a counting by Riss and Company for a total of as many as 23 cartons instead of the 2 as indicated on the invoice. He advised he also recalled relative to the one carton of men's heavy underwear that these items had been packed three sets to a box and, therefore, had apparently consisted of 14 cartons instead of one. He stated that he could not account at the moment for any additional carton discrepancy and could not make a physical examination of the merchandise since a material water damage loss to a major portion of this material had occurred in his warehouse about Christmas, 1958, and the material had been rearranged, salvaged and restored in other places.

On March 9, 1959, SA GEORGE P. SIMPSON examined records of Better Home Products Company at Syracuse, New York as made available by HARRY MARKIN, Proprietor, and the following was noted:

The freight invoices for October, 1958, were reviewed and the only material identifiable with the instant case consisted of the two Riss and Company freight invoices previously identified as G796738 and G796741. There were no invoices originating from the Detroit area other than the foregoing and no invoices were noted from [REDACTED]

The October-November, 1958, cancelled checks and stubs were examined with the following results:

Check No. 3478 dated October 17, 1958, in the amount of $263.52 payable to Riss Trucking was deposited by Riss at Kansas City on October 23, 1958.

Check No. 3503 dated October 15, 1958, in the amount of $390.40 payable to Riss Trucking Company was deposited at Kansas City on October 20, 1958.

As previously mentioned, Check No. 3507 dated October 8, 1958, in the amount of $1,322.71 payable to cash, was cleared through the Michigan Bank on October 10, 1958, in connection with the purchase from JACK SHUBOW.

Bank Debit Slip dated October 21, 1958, in the amount of $6.00 reflected the return of three checks for insufficient funds including the $2,000 check identified by MARKIN as furnished SHUBOW at Detroit in October, 1958.

AL 49-258

Due to the incomplete nature of Better Home Products records, the check stubs failed to identify the check furnished SHUBOW in the amount of $2,000 and returned on October 21, 1958. The check stubs, likewise, failed to reflect the third check alleged by MARKIN to have been furnished SHUBOW for the balance due on the approximate $5,365.82 purchase in October, 1958.

It was noted that numerous check stubs marked void failed to account for the check in that the voided check was not attached to the stubs. MARKIN advised that in all probability, one of these so-called voided checks probably accounted for the third check furnished SHUBOW but never processed after investigation was commenced in this case.

Examination of Better Home Products Company invoices relative to purchases from JACK SHUBOW, Rich-Mor Sales Company, Detroit, Michigan, revealed that the last purchase previous to the October, 1958, bankrupt's estate merchandise purchase was Rich-Mor Sales Invoice No. 8747 dated July 9, 1958, in the amount of $564 from which MARKIN deducted a $17.61 freight charge and remittance was made in the amount of $546.39. The only purchase since that date except for the bankruptcy stock as contained in the records was Invoice No. 9171 dated October 14, 1958, relative to the purchase of 40 electric blankets, 12 Thor one-quarter drills and 12 Remson Lady Shavers for a total of $574. This invoice indicated that it was freighted to Syracuse on Riss Trailer No. 2779 which it is noted was the second shipment of the bankruptcy stock and pertains to the second Riss and Company Freight Invoice No. G796741.

In the absence of a Better Home Products Company cash disbursement relative to Rich-Mor Sales Invoice No. 9171, MARKIN advised that he has not paid this bill in view of his differences with SHUBOW over the bankruptcy stock on which he has paid $2,000 through SHUBOW and then the full 60% valuation through the Bankruptcy Court as previously reported.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
INTERVIEW REPORTDate March 31, 1959

[redacted] Valley Fan Manufacturing Company, Fort Valley, Georgia, advised he sold two fans to the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Mr. [redacted] advised on or about August 28, 1958, his company received a postal card with the name SCANLON printed around the edges of the card. The card requested current information of list prices and discounts. Mr. [redacted] stated he had a Valley Fan Manufacturing Company catalog and list price sheet sent to the Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop at 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee 3, Wisconsin. He stated he then received a letter postmarked August 28, 1958, from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop containing a purchase order, number A 3714, purporting to be from [redacted] manager, for two number FC-16 portable coolers, which listed at $266.29 each, less 40% as a dealer's discount. He stated the above order was received on approximately September 2, 1958, and on that same day the purchase order was designated their invoice number X-03842, and a shop order number 378 was submitted to their shop to build the two portable coolers. Mr. [redacted] stated the coolers are custom made after they receive orders for them and this procedure was followed on receiving the order from Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop. He said on September 2, 1958 he had written a letter to Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, directing it to the attention of Mr. [redacted] in which he acknowledged their purchase order for the two coolers and advised they had entered a plant order for the coolers. He stated that he requested current credit information as this was the first time he had done business with Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop. [redacted] advised he then received a letter, dated September 6, 1958, purporting to be from [redacted] Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop, which stated in part, "What references could you possibly want we are well rated in Dun & Bradstreet. We feel our credit is very good for we make a point of paying our bills." Mr. [redacted] stated his is a small company and that they do not subscribe to Dun & Bradstreet and he had not checked with Dun & Bradstreet at this time, but instead took a chance that the company would be paid for the two coolers. He stated it is their usual practice to request credit references when they receive an order from someone they have not done business with before. He advised he had not relied on the statement in the letter that Scanlon's Radio and Music Shop was well rated in Dun & Bradstreet in extending credit, as he normally would have extended credit on any similar order and take a chance that they would be paid. He stated that on September 17, 1958, the two portable coolers were shipped from the Valley Fan Manufacturing Company by the Great Southern Trucking Company to Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 West Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He stated that on the same day he had sent Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop an invoice, number X-03842, reflecting the shipment of two PC-16 Valley Fans at a total of $532.58, less 40%, making a total owed by the Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop of $319.55. He stated that on November 1, 1958, a monthly statement was sent to Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop reflecting they owed $319.55. He advised he had followed this statement with a letter, dated November 5, 1958, to Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop, reminding them that their account was past due. He advised that at about the same time he had submitted a request for Dun & Bradstreet's rating on this company, using an advertisement of the Dun & Bradstreet to do so, but never received a reply to this inquiry. He advised on about November 6, 1958, he received a letter from an attorney, Mr. [redacted], who advised he had been appointed as a receiver for the creditors of [redacted] who was doing business as Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop and that he had checked the business address of [redacted] and found no assets there. [redacted] stated he then, on November 12, 1958, requested the Great Southern Trucking Company, 4430 Marion Avenue, Macon, Georgia, to trace his shipment, consigned to Seanlons, and requested photostats of the delivery receipt. He advised he subsequently received a photostat of a General Office Delivery Receipt of the Scherer Freight Lines, Incorporated, Ottawa, Illinois, number F 88145, reflecting they were a connecting carrier and had made delivery of the two electric fans to the Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop, 707 Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b7c

Mr. [redacted] advised his file did not contain the postal card from Seanlon's Radio and Music Shop, in which the request for information for price quotations was made. He advised the file has the originals of other communications from Seanlons and copies of his correspondence to this concern. He stated that the original of the invoice number X-03842 was mailed to Seanlons and his is a copy. He stated the original of the bill of lading was sent to Seanlens and this is the second carbon copy. Mr. [redacted] advised that he is the proper person to subpoena for the records of the Valley Fan Manufacturing Company.

AT 87-4904
